Submitted Electronically via the Patent Review Processing System

1. I, Rose Cordero Prey, am more than twenty-one years of age, am competent to present this affidavit, and have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.

2. This affidavit is given in support of the Motion by Petitioners Micron Technology, Inc. (“Micron”) and Micron Memory Japan, Inc. (“Micron Memory Japan”) for Pro Hac Vice Admission of Rose Cordero Prey.

3. I am a partner at the law firm of Kenyon & Kenyon LLP.

4. I am an experienced litigation attorney, and have been litigating patent cases for 10 years. I have experience litigating patent infringement cases in many district courts and before the U.S. International Trade Commission. I have been counsel at trial, hearings, and with respect to patent-related summary judgment proceedings and other patent-related hearings and pleadings concerning, inter alia, patent validity, claim construction, and infringement issues.

5. I received a Bachelor’s of Science degree in Mathematics in 2001 and have several years of experience litigating patents specifically directed to semiconductor devices (and fabrication thereof), including for clients Micron, Elpida Memory, Inc. (“Elpida”), and Sony Corporation.

6. I am trial counsel for Petitioners Micron and Micron Memory Japan in co-pending district court litigation against the Patent Owner, MIT v. Micron Tech.,

Inc. et al., Civil Action No. 1:15-cv-10374, filed on February 12, 2015, in the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, which involves the same patent at issue in this proceeding (U.S. Patent No. 6,057,221 or the “’221 patent”).

7. I have been actively involved in all aspects of the aforementioned district court litigation, including Petitioners’ on-going factual investigation and development of their non-infringement, invalidity and unenforceability positions regarding the claims of the ’221 patent, and have consequently gained in-depth familiarity with the subject matter at issue in this proceeding.

8. In 2011, I began representing Elpida, which has been succeeded by Petitioner Micron Memory Japan, in patent-related matters, and, in 2013, I represented Elpida in licensing negotiations with Patent Owner Massachusetts Institute of Technology (“MIT”) relating to the ’221 patent.

9. Through this representation, I acquired specific familiarity with the claims of the ’221 patent that are the subject matter of this proceeding.

10. I have stayed up-to-date regarding the documents filed and actions taken to date in the present matter, Case No. IPR2015-01087, and have carefully reviewed Petitioners’ petition.

11. I am a member in good standing of the State Bar of New York, as well as the following Federal Courts:

United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York
United States District Court for the Southern District of New York
United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

12. I have never been suspended or disbarred from practice before any court or administrative body.

13. I have never made an application for admission to practice before any court or administrative body that has been denied.

14. No sanctions or contempt citations have been imposed against me by any court or administrative body.

15. I have read and will comply with the Office Patent Trial Practice Guide and the Board's Rules of Practice for Trials set forth in part 42 of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

16. I understand that I will be subject to the USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct as set forth in 37 C.F.R. §§ 11.101 et. seq. and disciplinary jurisdiction under 37 C.F.R. § 11.19(a).

17. I have not applied to appear pro hac vice in any proceedings before the United States Patent and Trademark Office in the last three (3) years.

18. I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true, and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

Executed on June 9, 2015.
