Item 2 SEC Registration/Reporting

Responses to this Item help us (and you) determine whether you are eligible to register with the SEC. Complete this Item 2.A. only if you are applying for SEC registration or submitting an annual updating amendment to your SEC registration.

To register (or remain registered) with the SEC, you must check at least one of the Items 2.A. (1) through 2.A.(12), below. If you are submitting an annual updating amendment to your SEC registration and you are no longer eligible to register with the SEC, check Item 2.A.(13). Part 1A Instruction 2 provides information to help you determine whether you may affirmatively respond to each of these items. You (the adviser): (1) are a large advisory firm that either: (a) has regulatory assets under management of $100 million (in U.S. dollars) or more, or (b) has regulatory assets under management of $90 million (in U.S. dollars) or more at the time of filing its most recent annual updating amendment and is registered with the SEC; are a mid-sized advisory firm that has regulatory assets under management of $25 million (in U.S. dollars) or more but less than $100 million (in U.S. dollars) and you are either: (a) not required to be registered as an adviser with the state securities authority of the state where you maintain your principal office and place of business, or (b) not subject to examination by the state securities authority of the state where you maintain your principal office and place of business; Click HERE for a list of states in which an investment adviser, if registered, would not be subject to examination by the state securities authority. have your principal office and place of business in Wyoming (which does not regulate advisers); have your principal office and place of business outside the United States; (4) are an investment adviser (or sub-adviser) to an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940; are an investment adviser to a company which has elected to be a business development company pursuant to section 54 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and has not withdrawn the election, and you have at least $25 million of regulatory assets under management; are a pension consultant with respect to assets of plans having an aggregate value of at least $200,000,000 that qualifies for the exemption in rule 203A-2(a); are a related adviser under rule 203A-2(b) that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, an investment adviser that is registered with the SEC, and your principal office and place of business is the same as the registered
