

Gary Coad

Associate Washington, D.C.

+1 (202) 682-7146

gary.coad@weil.com

Gary A. Coad is an associate in Weil's Washington, D.C. office and a member of the Firm's Patent Litigation practice. He focuses on patent litigation, including district court litigation and Section 337 investigations before the United States International Trade Commission.

Practice Areas

➤ Patent Litigation

Admissions

- District of Columbia
- Eastern District Virginia
- Virginia State

Education

- Mercyhurst University (B.S., 2009)
- University of New Hampshire School of Law (J.D., 2012)

Mr. Coad has experience with a wide array of technologies, including pharmaceuticals, pharmaceutical delivery systems and medical devices, organic electroluminescent devices and materials, wearable technologies, print management and cost recovery systems, semiconductor manufacturing and packaging, and touchscreen input systems.

Mr. Coad received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of New Hampshire School of Law, where he was a member of IDEA: The Intellectual Property Law Review and was recognized as a Franklin Pierce Intellectual Property Law Scholar. Mr. Coad graduated from Mercyhurst University in 2009 with a B.S. in Chemistry.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Coad served as an intern in the Office of Unfair Import Investigations for the United States International Trade Commission.

Copyright © 2016 Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, All Rights Reserved. The contents of this website may contain attorney advertising under the laws of various states.

Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.