CLIENTS AND TESTIMONY

Our clients span industries from technology to fashion, from “fin tech” to entertainment, from retail to renewable energy.

When “super angel” Mark Gerson starts a new business, his first call is to Forefront.

“I have worked extensively with The Forefront Law Group in several companies, as I recommend them to be essentially the general counsel to every young company with which I am involved. They are always rigorous, completely dependable, exercise unique versatility and intelligence, bill with such honesty and efficiency that there is never even a discussion about fees and epitomize (by the quality of their advice and their subsequent execution) the term ‘counsel.’ Everyone — everyone — I have referred them to has emerged a deeply satisfied client, and has worked with them on much more than just the introductory matter. When a businessman waxes nostalgic (probably incorrectly!) about what attorneys once were — or thinks about what he hopes for when working with attorneys today — he is invariably thinking (whether he knows them or not) of The Forefront Law Group.”

Mark Gerson

Chairman and Founder of Gerson Lehrman Group, Thuzio and Matterhorn Data

When Matrix Partners, the financier of Gilt Groupe and The Ladders wanted to invest $8 million in Brightwire, CEO John Cooper called Forefront:

“When we secured large scale venture capital funding from Matrix and Silicon Valley Bank last summer, Forefront handled the entire transaction for Brightwire, from inception through negotiation and closing. As deal lawyers, I would put the Forefront team up against any firm in the country.”

John Cooper

CEO of Brightwire
