Delaware Registered Agent

The majority of U.S. jurisdictions require businesses maintain a Registered Agent, or "Statutory Agent," and Delaware is no exception.

Having a Registered Agent in Delaware will help your corporation or LLC manage its legal and entity compliance requirements within the state. These include receiving legal documents as well as official government documents—from annual report forms to franchise tax notices.

With CSC as your Registered Agent for Service of Process in Delaware, we will not only provide you with reliable representation but notify your corporation if it is in good standing or not. We also notify you of Delaware's critical filing deadlines including annual reports and business license or DBA renewals.

Along with these benefits, with CSC as your Delaware Registered Agent we will maintain records of all entity transactions for service of process.
