Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 30, 2015, Finjan, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Finjan Holdings, Inc. (collectively, “Finjan” or the “Company”) and a U.S.-based network security company (“Licensee”) entered into a Confidential Patent License, Settlement and Release Agreement (the “License Agreement”), under which Licensee (i) licenses from Finjan a worldwide, nonexclusive, irrevocable license under the identified Finjan patents and related patent rights to use, make, have made, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise dispose of any and all Licensee products or services, alone or in combination with other Licensee products and services, and (ii) has agreed to pay Finjan $3.65 million in cash as follows: (A) $1.0 million on December 31, 2015, (B) $1.65 million on or before July 1, 2016, and (C) $1.0 million on or before September 30, 2016. Such license does not grant Licensee any right to transfer, sublicense or grant any rights under the License Agreement to a third party except as specifically provided under the License Agreement. Such license also has certain limitations relating to products of any company acquired by Licensee or its affiliates or an acquiring company of Licensee.

The foregoing description of the License Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the License Agreement which the Company intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the applicable periodic report. Finjan also intends to seek confidential treatment of certain terms and provisions of the agreement in connection with the filing of such agreement, in accordance with the procedures of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

A copy of the press release issued by the Company relating to the matters discussed above is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The information in the press release shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, unless the Company specifically states that the information is to be considered “filed” under the Exchange Act or incorporates it by reference into a filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

Finjan Closes 2015 by Granting Another Multi-Million Dollar License, Settlement and Release Agreement to a US-based Network Security Company

E. Palo Alto, Jan. 4, 2016 -- Finjan Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: FNJN), a cybersecurity company, announced that on December 30, 2015, its wholly-owned subsidiary, Finjan, Inc. ("Finjan"), entered into a multi-million dollar Patent License, Settlement and Release Agreement (the "Agreement"), with another US-based network security company. The terms of the Agreement are confidential.

“This Patent License Agreement is one more milestone in Finjan’s licensing program as we closed 2015 with a successful, amicable, business-negotiated patent license agreement consistent with our Licensing Best Practices,” said Julie Mar-Spinola, Finjan Holding’s CIPO and VP, Legal. “This is the second license to the Finjan portfolio in as many months. While many see strong headwinds in the intellectual property licensing space, in contrast we are seeing momentum in our licensing program entering into 2016. It is reassuring to see that we are able to enter into licensing agreements without always resorting to costly and inefficient litigation.”
