1 The jury is excused for recess at this time. 2 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: All rise. 3 (Jury out.) THE COURT: All right. The Court stands in recess. 4 (Recess.) 5 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: All rise. 6 7 THE COURT: Be seated, please. 8 Counsel, let me review with you a little bit of the history of today's portion of the trial so that I can be clear 9 10 with everyone as to where we started this morning and where we 11 are now. 12 Previously this morning, after the inventor, 13 Mr. Martyn, testified, I met with counsel in chambers. And at 14 that time, I raised with counsel the possibility that there 15 might be an 02 Micro situation requiring additional construction of disputed or potentially disputed terms by the 16 17 Court. We discussed "unlaunched," and we discussed "reached 18 19 directly," both of them coming from Claim 1 of the '020 patent and Claim 2 of the '476 patent. 20 21 The Plaintiff indicated to me in chambers that they 22 did not believe an O2 Micro situation existed. Defendants 23 indicated in chambers that they thought there might be an 02 --24 02 Micro issue and that they thought as late as last week that 25 there possibly could be one in this trial, but they weren't

2	Therefore, they did not bring it to the Court's
3	attention until the Court raised it this morning in chambers
4	after Mr. Martyn testified. The Defendants asked the Court to
5	revisit the issue after Dr. Zeger testified. And with the
6	agreement of the Plaintiff, the Court proceeded to let
7	Dr. Zeger testify. He has now given his direct testimony.
8	And the Court is persuaded that an 02 Micro situation
9	does, in fact, exist. There's no need to go through the 10	cross-examination of Dr. Zeger to reach that conclusion, and
11	that under 02 Micro and its progeny, the Court has an
12	obligation to provide further claim construction with regard to
13	these terms to the parties.
14	I intend to discharge that obligation. I'm going to 15	afford both sides an opportunity to offer very brief and
16	concise argument on these two terms. The time that we're
17	spending is going to be equally chargeable to the parties as a

1 If the Plaintiff would care to offer any argument on 2 the term "unlaunched" or the term "reached directly," I'd be 3 happy to hear it. Does Plaintiff have any argument on these terms to 4 present to the Court? 5 MR. GIZA: Yes, Your Honor. 6 7 Would you like me to present some slides that show some of the evidence of the file history or --8 THE COURT: Counsel, I'll let you present your 9 10 argument. I'd ask that you do it from the podium. 11 MR. GIZA: Yes, Your Honor. 12 THE COURT: I want you to understand that the time 13 you use is going to be charged to your trial time, but I want 14 you to have an opportunity to present to the Court what you 15 think is the most compelling case for your view of these terms 16 and what is an appropriate construction for them. 17 So that -- so with that, Mr. Giza, let me hear from 18 you. 19 Thank you, Your Honor. MR. GIZA: 20 Mr. Wietholter, could you cue up Dr. Zeger's slides, 21 please? 22 Can we go to Slide 60, please? 23 Your Honor, the claim term "launched" and 24 "unlaunched" show up in two places in the patent in the claims. 25 First, in Element [1e]: Each function in the list
