Petitioners’ Request That This Case Be Decided Without Oral Argument

A party may request oral argument pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.70. The Board does not have to grant the request if it determines “that a hearing [is] not necessary for a decision . . . .” BAE Sys. Information and Elec. Sys. Integration, Inc. v. Cheetah Omni, LLC, IPR 2013-00175, Paper 45 at 1 (P.T.A.B. June 19, 2014). Petitioners respectfully submit that oral argument is unnecessary in this case because, as pointed out in Petitioners’ Reply to Patent Owner’s Response in this case,<sup>1</sup> all outstanding issues have been decided on a nearly identical record in the related IPRs 2015-00545, -546, -547, -548, -551, and -554 (the “related IPRs”).<sup>2</sup> Accordingly, Petitioners submit that oral argument is unnecessary in this proceeding.
