

STATUTORY DECLARATION

I, Sally Jennings of The British Library, 96 Euston Road, London NW1 2DB, United Kingdom, do solemnly and sincerely declare, that:

1. I am a Senior Research and Service Manager at the British Library (the Library) and have worked for the Library for 1.5 years. I have access to and knowledge of the records and record keeping practices and procedures of the Library. I have reviewed these records and record keeping practices to prepare this declaration. Based on that review, the ordinary practices and procedures of the Library and my personal knowledge and belief, I make the following declaration.
2. The Reading Rooms of the Library are open to any bona fide enquirer and any publication in the Library may be consulted in the Reading Rooms on request. Any organisation or individual may purchase photocopies of extracts from publications.
3. On the 13th March 1985 the Library received a copy of Digital Avionics Systems : 6th Conference : Papers- IEEE conf no 84CH-2132-9. It was to the best of my knowledge received intact and was assigned the Library shelfmark Document Supply 6369.400000 CP 8411 1984. It was then catalogued on the 18th March 1985 and would have been available for public use to the best of my knowledge and belief from that date. There is now produced to me and marked "A" a true and correct copy of the pages showing the receipt date stamp and the cataloguing date stamp. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Each exhibit will have to be signed by the solicitor and will have to have the words below printed on it. The exhibit will then have to be signed and dated by the solicitor " This is the exhibit marked "A" referred to in the statutory declaration of.....[name of person making the declaration] signed the[ ddmmyyyy] before me .....[name of solicitor] Notary Public"

4. The Library receipt date stamp and the cataloguing date stamp were made at or near the time of the matters set forth therein, by—or from information transmitted by—a person with knowledge. These records were kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of the Library. These records were made as a regular practice in the course of a regularly conducted activity.

5. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the Statutory Declarations Act 1835.
