Dare to Defy Seizures

About the Foundation

Our Mission

The mission of the Epilepsy Foundation is:

To lead the fight to overcome the challenges of living with epilepsy and to accelerate therapies to stop seizures, find cures, and save lives.

The Epilepsy Foundation, a national non-profit with nearly 50 local organizations throughout the United States, has led the fight against seizures since 1968. The Foundation is an unwavering ally for individuals and families impacted by epilepsy and seizures. The Foundation epilepsy through community services; public education; federal and local advocacy; and supporting research into new treatments and therapies. The Foundation works to ensure that people with seizures have the opportunity to live their lives to their fullest potential.

How Can You Make a Difference?

Giving to the Epilepsy Foundation means you make the world a better, easier, more manageable place for the nearly 3 million people in the U.S. who are living with epilepsy and seizures. Donate Now

Other Ways to Give

Honor & Memorial Gift

Pay tribute to a loved one and make a gift in their honor or their memory.

Monthly Gift

Give a recurring monthly donation to support the Epilepsy Foundation. Set up is easy, plus your ongoing support offers strong and steady funding.

Clothing Donations

Give gently used items and the Epilepsy Foundation will benefit from your generosity. The Epilepsy Foundation has partnered with Savers, Inc., a leading privately held thrift store chain with more than 320 locations. Contributions of slightly used items are part of a simple, convenient, yet impactful way for people to support the Epilepsy Foundation. Within this partnership, Savers pays the Epilepsy Foundation for every donation.

Donate an automobile, RV, truck, boat or trailer to the Epilepsy Foundation and you can earn a charitable income tax deduction. You'll avoid the costs and hassle of selling a used vehicle and we'll tow your vehicle for free. You must own a clear title to donate a vehicle.
