

A Service of the Future for American Homes

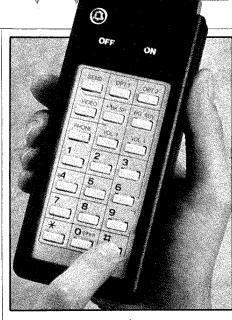

Imagine sitting at home on a Saturday afternoon planning an evening out. You pick up a control unit similar to a hand-held calculator and press a few numbers. Instantly a list of local restaurants appears on a TV screen. By pressing another number you request a list of French restaurants. Immediately the list appears and you select a review of one of them. Finally, you read selections from tonight's menu. All this without leaving your living room.

ViewtronSM is a service which offers many features like the one just described. Viewtron takes advantage of electronic advances to put futuristic services comfortably into your home through telephone lines.

Here are a few more services you'll derive from Viewtron:

- With Viewtron you'll be able to order from your living room everything from a catered dinner to a new lawn mower, from a hair dryer to a theater ticket, from a hit record to an appointment for servicing your car.
- With Viewtron you can get sports scores faster than with any other medium and get them when you want them.
- With Viewtron you'll be able to take quizzes to improve your spelling, your driving, your Spanish, or your boating.
- With Viewtron you'll be able to place messages or ask an answer questions on a community bulletin board.

The Viewtron service is being provided by Knight-Ridder Newspapers, Inc., through its subsidiary, Viewdata Corporation of America. The Bell System is providing communications and terminals in this jointly sponsored trial.

Specially modified TV sets will be placed in 150-160 homes in Coral Gables, Florida, over a six-month period beginning in the Spring of 1980. More than 10,000 pages of information and shopping services will be available on Viewtron every day from 6 a.m. to midnight.

Participants in this pilot test will receive the Viewtron service free of charge and will be interviewed extensively about their reactions will help determine future directions for the service.
