7 BY MR. BANSAL:

8 Q. Good morning, Dr. Cairns. Could you
9 please state your name and spell it for the 10 record?

11 A. It's Darran, that's D-A-R-R-A-N, and
12 then my middle name is Robert. That's
13 R-O-B-E-R-T. And my last name is Cairns.
14 That's C-A-I-R-N-S.

15 Q. Dr. Cairns, have you been deposed
16 before?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. How many times?

19 A. I don't recall exactly. Somewhere
20 between four and six, I think.

21 Q. What was the subject matter of each
22 of those depositions?

23 A. I have been deposed on touchscreen
24 technology. I have been deposed on flexible
25 credit cards with embedded electronics. I've

1 D. Cairns

2 been deposed on polishing cloths, polishing
3 material for manufacture of semiconductors.

4 Q. So the case that you mentioned about
5 touchscreen technology, what was -- what about
6 touchscreen technology were you deposed upon,
7 or did you opine on?

8 A. It was litigation in the ITC between 9 Apple and HTC. The patent at issue was -- it
10 was a capacitive touchscreen that had shield --
11 that had shield lines. It was one of the Apple
12 patents that was asserted against HTC.

13 Q. Do you understand you are under oath
14 today?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. I will be asking you questions during 17 this deposition, you will be giving me some --
18 you know, your answers. The court reporter
19 will be transcribing them, so when you speak,
20 just, you know, speak loudly and clearly so
21 that she can hear it and, you know, she can
22 transcribe them accurately.

23 During this deposition, we will be
24 taking breaks, and, you know, if you need a,
25 you know, break before I schedule one, just
