11. I have extensive experience in litigating patent matters. I have been litigating patent cases since 1993, and have served as lead trial counsel in dozens of patent infringement cases. I have argued more than ten appeals of patent cases at the Federal Circuit, including appeals of IPR Final Written Decisions.

12. I am intimately familiar with the subject matter of this proceeding and the patent at issue therein, U.S. Pat. No. 5,796,183 (“the ‘183 patent.”)

13. I was lead counsel for Nartron in Petitioner’s appeal from the Board’s prior Final Written Decision in this IPR, Paper No. 35. That appeal was captioned *Samsung v. 16. As lead counsel for Nartron in the prior appeal, lead trial counsel for Nartron in the district court litigations, and pro hac vice counsel for Nartron in the other six IPRs, I have become highly familiar with the '183 patent, the invention claimed in the '183 patent, the technology relevant to the '183 patent, the prosecution history of the '183 patent (including the history of two separate reexaminations of the '183 patent), the prior art to the '183 patent, various court and Board decisions concerning the '183 patent, and various arguments which have been made concerning the validity of the '183 patent.

17. In view of my extensive familiarity with the subject matter of this proceeding, and my more than twenty-five years of experience litigating patent cases, I believe I am fully qualified to represent Nartron in this case.
