

Declaration of William L. Jorgensen, Ph.D., in Support of Par Petition for Inter Partes Review of U.S. Patent No. 5,665,772

overcome the compelling prior art that convincingly demonstrates that the subject matter claimed in claims 1-3 & 8-10 of the '772 Patent would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art.

206. I reserve the right to supplement my opinions as appropriate if the Patentee submits any allegations of such secondary considerations of non-obviousness.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statement were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statement may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
