DECISION
Denying Patent Owner's Request for Rehearing
37 C.F.R. § 42.71

I. INTRODUCTION

Focal IP, LLC (“Patent Owner”) filed a Request for Rehearing of the Decision to Institute (Paper 26, “Dec.”) an inter partes review as to claim 1 of U.S. Patent 8,155,298 B2 (Ex. 1001, “the ’298 patent”). Paper 28, “Req. Reh’g.” For the reasons that follow, the Request for Rehearing is denied.

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW

A party requesting rehearing bears the burden of showing that the decision should be modified. 37 C.F.R. § 42.71(d). The party must identify specifically all matters we misapprehended or overlooked, and the place where each matter was previously addressed in a motion, an opposition, or a reply. Id. When reconsidering a decision on institution, we review the decision for an abuse of discretion. 37 C.F.R. § 42.71(c). An abuse of discretion may be determined if a decision is based on an erroneous interpretation of law, if a factual finding is not supported by substantial evidence, or if the decision represents an unreasonable judgment in weighing relevant factors. Star Fruits S.N.C. v. U.S., 393 F.3d 1277, 1281 (Fed. Cir. 2005); Arnold P’ship v. Dudas, 362 F.3d 1338, 1340 (Fed. Cir. 2004); In re Gartside, 203 F.3d 1305, 1315-16 (Fed. Cir. 2000).

III. ANALYSIS

Patent Owner contends that we misapprehended or overlooked Patent Owner’s arguments in connection with the claim language regarding the term “switching facility” recited in claim 1. Req. Reh’g at 1–5. Patent Owner also contends that we misapprehended or overlooked Patent Owner’s arguments regarding the teachings of the invention and disclaimers disclosed in the Specification as to the claim construction of the terms “switching facility,” “controller,” and “web-enabled processing system.” Id. at 5–15.

We are not persuaded by Patent Owner’s contentions that we misapprehended or overlooked its arguments in connection with the claim language regarding “switching facility.” Id. at 1–5. In its Preliminary Response (Paper 12, “Prelim. Resp.”), apart from the reproduction of a portion of claim 1, Patent Owner merely provides a single conclusory statement without any explanation—“[c]laim 1 explicitly recites the functionality the ‘switching facility’ and ‘edge switch’ must have, and expressly distinguish that a ‘switching facility’ is not an ‘edge switch.’” Id. at 34. Patent Owner for the first time in its Request for Rehearing presents additional arguments regarding the claim language. Req. Reh’g 4–5. A request for rehearing is not an opportunity to submit new arguments. See 37 C.F.R. § 42.71(d). We could not have misapprehended or overlooked arguments that were not made previously in Patent Owner’s Preliminary Response.

Furthermore, the portion of the claim language reproduced by Patent Owner in the Preliminary Response misleadingly emphasizes a subset of the recitation—“[t]he preamble states that ‘edge switches’ are ‘for routing calls from and to user within a local geographic area,’ and ‘switching facilities’ are ‘for routing calls to other edge switches or other switching facilities local or in other geographic areas.” Prelim. Resp. 34 (citing Ex. 1001, 14:67–15:4) (emphasis added by Patent Owner). The claim language, in contrast, recites that “switching facilities” are for routing calls “to other edge switches” or “other switching facilities local or in other geographic areas.” Ex. 1001, 15:2–4 (emphases added). In its Preliminary Response, Patent Owner proffers no explanation as to the recitation in its entirety, and Patent Owner’s argument ignores certain words in the claim language to support its allegation that the term “switching facilities” excludes “edge switches” and “edge devices.” Prelim. Resp. 34.

Moreover, Patent Owner admits that Applicants introduced “switching facility”—a term that was not used in the original Specification—into the claims by Amendment to indicate that “switching facility” has broader scope than “tandem switch,” but nevertheless attempts to import a negative limitation from the preferred embodiment into the claims. Id. at 36; Ex. 2005, 62, 82. As we indicated in our Decision on Institution, we have considered all of Patent Owner’s arguments presented in the Preliminary Response regarding the claim term “switching facility,” and determine that the broadest reasonable interpretation of the term is “any switch in the communication network,” consistent with Applicants’ remarks filed with that Amendment. Dec. 8–9; Ex. 2005, 82.

We also are not persuaded that we misapprehended or overlooked Patent Owner’s arguments regarding the teachings of the invention and disclaimers disclosed in the Specification. Req. Reh’g 5–15. In its Request for Rehearing, Patent Owner mainly repeats the same arguments as those in the Preliminary Response. Compare Req. Reh’g 5–14 with Prelim. Resp. 12–42. A request for rehearing is not an opportunity to express disagreement with a decision. During trial, Patent Owner has an opportunity to resubmit those arguments, along with any new arguments, explanations, and supporting evidence, in its Response. As noted in the Scheduling Order, any arguments for patentability not raised in the Response will be deemed waived. Paper 27, 3.

For the foregoing reasons, Patent Owner has not demonstrated that we abused our discretion in construing the terms of claim 1 for purposes of the Decision on Institution and, consequently, Patent Owner's Request for Rehearing is denied.
