filing a Joint Claim Construction Statement, pursuant to Patent Local Rule 4-3. Defendants reserve the right to supplement, revise, modify, or otherwise finalize the proposed constructions, positions, and/or information in this disclosure to take into account additional information that comes to light, including without limitation as additional contentions are made, facts are ascertained, analyses are made, and proposed constructions are provided by Plaintiffs.

6 Subject to the above limitations and reservations of rights, Defendants submit the7 following proposed constructions as set forth in Attachment A for the Asserted Claims.

8 As for the remaining terms and phrases identified by Defendants in their Patent Local Rule 9 4-1 Disclosures, Defendants agree with Plaintiff that those terms and phrases do not require the 10 Court's construction at this time.

2. PRELIMINARY IDENTIFICATION OF EXTRINSIC EVIDENCE

Pursuant to Patent Local Rule 4-2 and the Court's Civil Minutes Order, Dkt. No. 68, 12 Defendants provide below a preliminary identification of extrinsic support for their claim 13 14 construction positions, including with respect to confirming the plain and ordinary meaning of the terms identified in their Patent Local Rule 4-1 disclosures (to the extent that Plaintiffs construes 15 those terms contrary to their plain and ordinary meaning as would be understood by one of 16 ordinary skill in the art): CMS-4-2 00000001 - CMS-4-2 00008343. Defendants also expressly 17 reserve the right to rely on any extrinsic evidence that Plaintiffs rely upon and/or to supplement 18 this disclosure if Plaintiffs propose a construction or applies a different meaning of the terms than 19 20 the plain and ordinary meaning.

Defendants may also rely upon the testimony, statements, and/or deposition exhibits of the listed inventors and/or prosecuting attorneys of the Patents-in-Suit¹ for claim construction purposes. In summary, such testimony could include an explanation of the meaning of the claim terms in the context of the subject matter of the Patents-in-Suit, a description of the state of the technology relating to the claimed invention at the time the applications for the Patents-in-Suit were filed, a description of the qualifications of a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the applications for the Patents-in-Suit were filed, and how a person of ordinary skill in the art would interpret the identified claim terms or phrases at the time the applications for the 'Patents-in-Suit were filed. Defendants may supplement their claim constructions following the completion of the depositions of the above-listed individuals or entities.

5 Defendants may also rely upon the testimony and/or statements of their expert, Mr. Ian Crayford, regarding the proposed constructions, including the indefiniteness of any claims. Mr. 6 7 Crayford's resume is attached hereto as Attachment B. In summary, such testimony could include an explanation of the meaning of the claim terms in the context of the subject matter of the 8 Patents-in-Suit, a description of the state of the technology relating to the claimed inventions at the 9 time the applications for the Patents-in-Suit were filed, a description of the qualifications of a 10 11 person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the applications for the Patents-in-Suit were filed, and how a person of ordinary skill in the art would interpret the identified claim terms or phrases at the 12 13 time the applications for the Patents-in-Suit were filed. Such testimony could also include an 14 opinion that a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the applications for the Patents-in-Suit were filed would construe the claim terms as Defendants have proposed. 15 Defendants also expressly reserve the right to rely on additional expert opinions in rebuttal of any opinions 16 submitted by Plaintiffs. 17

Finally, Defendants may rely upon declarations of other prior artists identified in Defendants' Patent Local Rule 3-3 disclosures. Such declarations relate to the understanding of those of ordinary skill in the art regarding the plain and ordinary meaning of the disputed terms in the context of the subject matter of the Patents-in-Suit and a description of the state of the technology relating to the claimed invention at the time the applications for the Patents-in-Suit were filed.
