Counsel,

The Board appreciates the parties' diligence in working to reach a settlement agreement. The motions to terminate will be deemed timely filed if received by midnight March 7, EST. No motion is necessary. In lieu of an order, a copy of this email, designated Board and Parties Only, will be filed as a Board exhibit.

Thank you,

Maria Vignone

**CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT REQUESTED**

Dear Honorable Board,

In Paper No. 20 in IPR2016-01693 and Paper No. 19 in IPR2016-01694, the Board ordered the parties to file a motion to terminate the proceeding (if any) by COB today, March 7. The parties are diligently working to reach a settlement agreement and many of the counsel and principles of the parties are on the West Coast and will be working into the evening. In view of the diligent activity of the parties, including in the Pacific Time Zone, the parties jointly request that the Board permit the parties to file a motion to terminate by the end of day today (12 midnight EST), March 7.

Because this joint request discusses ongoing settlement discussions which are confidential, Petitioner and Patent Owner jointly request that the Board make this request and any related order available to the Parties and Board only.

Respectfully submitted,

David C.
