

Mirage Swift™

Nasal Pillows System from ResMed

You've never seen one like this before

• • • so light

• • • so flexible

• • • and it works!

RESMED

A nasal pillows system that is as light on the face . . .
. . . as it is on the scales !

Incredibly light, the Mirage Swift™ weighs less than 2½ oz (about 70 g)! It is one of the lightest nasal pillows systems you will ever see.

Ingenious design ensures that the Mirage Swift sits lightly on the face, at the entrance of the nostrils, minimizing facial contact and maximizing comfort.

No other nasal pillows system offers such flexibility four tube positions, more sleeping positions

For the first time ever, a nasal pillows system that offers interchangeable tube positions !

The Mirage Swift air tube can be used in four positions—up, down, left or right.

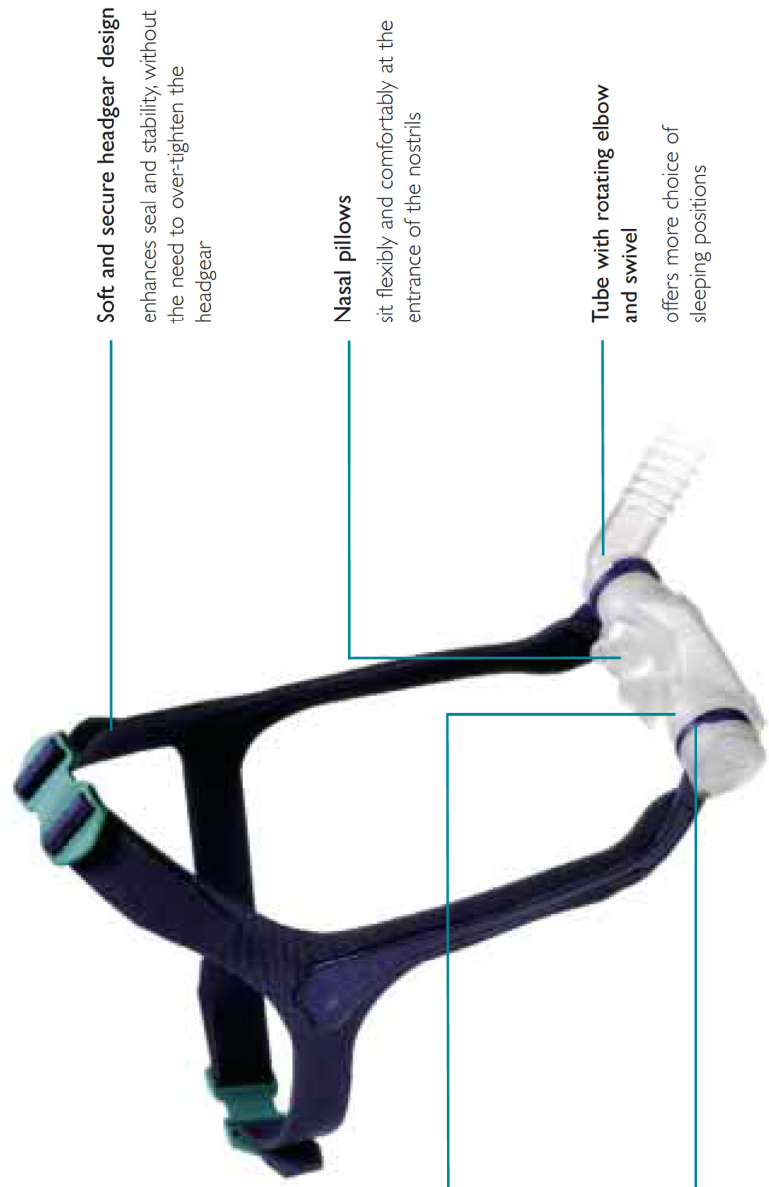

This flexibility provides the freedom your patients are looking for. It gives them greater choice of sleeping positions for the most comfortable night's sleep.

Mirage Swift—finally, a nasal pillows system that works !

This is the system you have been waiting for

Light and unobtrusive, the Mirage Swift also scores high on performance. After all, it is from ResMed, the leader in patient interface technology.
