GRANT OF GOOD CAUSE EXTENSION
35 U.S.C. § 316(a)(11) and 37 C.F.R. § 42.100(c)

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 316(a)(11), “the final determination in an inter partes review [shall] be issued not later than 1 year after the date on which the Director notices the institution of a review under this chapter, except that the Director may, for good cause shown, extend the 1-year period by not more than 6 months” The Director has delegated the authority to extend the one-year period to the Chief Administrative Patent ¹ This Order will be entered in each case. The parties are not authorized to use this caption style.

that pendency before the Board after institution is normally no more than one year. The time can be extended by up to six months for good cause by the Chief Administrative Patent Judge

In the above-captioned cases, the one-year deadline is currently June 30th, 2018, or fewer than 5 business days from the date of this Order. Due to the unforeseen emergency unavailability of a panel member, the Chief Administrative Patent Judge has determined that good cause exists to extend the one-year period for issuing the Final Written Decision in each of the present proceedings, in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 42.100(c).
