Gary –

Mylan generally is not opposed to agreeing to entry of the default protective order, but please provide a copy for our review first. [REDACTED]

To the extent you still believe a meet and confer would be fruitful regarding any of the above, we can be available at 11am EST tomorrow (Thursday, June 15th).

Thanks,
Lance

Subject: FW: Uceris Litigation - Cosmo & Valeant v. Mylan

Dear Joe & Lance:

I am writing to follow up on my email from the 9th. [REDACTED]

Separately, with regard to the '716 IPR (IPR2017-01035), we plan to submit the parties' joint letter to Judge Stark dated May 31, 2017 as an exhibit [REDACTED]. Please advise whether Mylan objects to entry of the default protective order in these IPRs so we can file the letter under seal. Because our POPR is due shortly, if there are any concerns we request a meet and confer call tomorrow. John or I am available most all day.

Regards,

Gary Frischling
