Your Honors,

Patent Owner, Alacritech Inc., respectfully requests permission to file motions to correct its Contingent Motions to Amend in the above captioned petitions. In particular, certain typographical and other errors were discovered in the exhibits to these motions as follows:

- Case IPR2017-01409, Paper 20 – The citations for proposed substitute claim 61 in Exhibit A were inadvertently copied from another case and not updated to correctly identify the written description support. The correct citations were provided in Exhibit A of Case IPR2017-01410, which relates to the same patent and includes corresponding claim language and amendments. PO would like to copy the citations from Exhibit A in Case IPR2017-01410 into the corresponding limitations of Exhibit A in Case IPR2017-01410.
- Case IPR2017-01391, Paper 21 – Exhibit C (the claim listing) includes misnumbered dependencies and an incorrect column heading due to clerical errors. The claim numbers are correct in Exhibits A and B, and petitioner has already responded to the contingent motion as if the errors had been corrected.
- Case IPR2017-01406, Paper 25 – PO inadvertently omitted an “and” before “a media access control (MAC) layer address...” in proposed substitute claim 36. Exhibit A also has a typographical error in an Exhibit number. Petitioner has already responded to the contingent motion as if the error had been corrected.

PO can provide redlines showing the proposed corrections upon the Board’s request.

The parties have met and conferred. Petitioner, Intel Corp., does not oppose the motions to correct in Cases IPR2017-01391 and IPR2017-01406. Petitioner does oppose the motion to correct in Case IPR2017-01409.

The parties are available for a conference call next week on Wednesday, May 16, from 10 – 12 AM CT (8 – 10 AM PT), 1:30 – 3 PM CT (11:30 AM – 1 PM PT), 4 – 6 PM CT (2 – 4 PM PT), or at the Board’s convenience.

Best regards,
Brian
