(57) ABSTRACT

A method and system are provided for allowing a user to specify actions that are to be automatically performed on data objects uploaded to a server. Aspects of the invention include maintaining on the server at least one user configurable action list that contains one or more action items representing actions that can be taken with respect to at least one data object uploaded to the server from a client device, wherein each of the action items is associated with an executable software object on the network that performs the action; in response to the user accessing the server and initiating a task on the server with respect to the at least one data object, displaying at least one of the action items contained in the action list associated with the task to the user for selection of the action items therein; receiving by the server an ID of each of the action items selected by the user; and invoking the executable software object associated with the received action item ID for automatically performing the action selected by the user on the at least one uploaded data object.
