35 U.S.C. § 318(a) and 37 C.F.R. § 42.73

I. INTRODUCTION

Technical Consumer Products, Inc., Nicor Inc., and Amax Lighting (collectively, “Petitioner”) filed a Petition (Paper 1, “Pet.”) to institute an inter partes review of claims 1, 3–8, and 10–14 (“the challenged claims”) of U.S. Patent No. 8,672,518 B2 (Ex. 1001, “the ’518 Patent”). Lighting Science Group Corp. (“Patent Owner”) acknowledged the filing of the Petition (Paper 6), but did not file a preliminary response. We determined that the information presented in the Petition established that there was a reasonable likelihood that Petitioner would prevail in challenging claims 1, 3–8, and 10–14 of the ’518 Patent as unpatentable under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a). Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 314, we instituted this inter partes review on November 1, 2017, as to all of the challenged claims, except claim 10, but not all the grounds presented the Petition. Paper 10 (“Dec. on Inst.”).

During the course of trial, Patent Owner filed a Patent Owner Response (Paper 17, “PO Resp.”), and Petitioner filed a Reply to the Patent Owner Response (Paper 21, “Pet. Reply”). A consolidated oral hearing with related Cases IPR2017-01280 and IPR2017-01287 was held on September 6, 2018, and a transcript of the hearing is included in the record. Paper 32 (“Tr.”).

Before the consolidated oral hearing, the United States Supreme Court held that a decision to institute under 35 U.S.C. § 314 may not institute on less than all claims challenged in the petition. SAS Inst., Inc. v. Iancu, 138 S. Ct. 1348, 1359–60 (2018). Following SAS, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“Office”) issued “Guidance on the impact of SAS on AIA trial proceedings,” in which the Office took the policy position that a decision granting institution will institute on all of the challenged claims in the petition and all the grounds presented in the petition.² The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit has since endorsed this Office policy by explaining that “‘the petitioner’s petition, not the Director’s discretion, is supposed to guide the life of the litigation’ and ‘that the petitioner’s contentions, not the Director’s discretion, define the scope of the litigation all the way from institution through to conclusion.’” Adidas AG v. Nike, Inc., 894 F.3d 1256, 1258 (Fed. Cir. 2018) (quoting SAS, 138 S. Ct. at 1356–1357). In accordance with SAS and Office policy, we issued an Order modifying our Decision on Institution entered on November 1, 2017, to include review of all challenged claims and all grounds presented by Petitioner in its Petition. Paper 19.

In addition, two additional petitioners sought institution of similar grounds of unpatentability against claims 1, 3–8, and 10–14 of the ’518 Patent: (1) Jiawei Technology (HK) Ltd., Jiawei Technology (USA) Ltd., and Shenzhen Jiawei Photovoltaic Lighting Co, Ltd. (“Jiawei”); and (2) Leedarson Lighting Co., Ltd., and Leedarson America, Inc. (“Leedarson”). See Papers 22, 23. We instituted review of all of the challenged claims and all grounds with respect to both new petitioners and joined the instituted proceedings, i.e., IPR2018-00262 and IPR2018-00270, with the instant proceeding. Id. Both new petitioners were joined under specific conditions in “understudy” roles. Id.

We have jurisdiction under 35 U.S.C. § 6. This decision is a Final Written Decision under 35 U.S.C. § 318(a) as to the patentability of claims 1, 3–8, and 11–14 of the '518 Patent. For the reasons discussed below, we hold that Petitioner has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that these claims are unpatentable under § 103(a).
