Dear Board,

e-Numerate does not oppose Merrill's request to withdraw. e-Numerate feels that the IPRs should be terminated in view of Merrill's decision to direct its attorneys to stop participating in them.

Regards,

Andrew Gordon (counsel for Patent Owner)

Dear Board,

Petitioner requests permission to file motions to withdraw from IPRs 2018-01389/91/92/94. Petitioner wishes to withdraw the appearances of its counsel (Katherine J. Rahlin and Adam R. Steinert), as well as withdraw its participation in the IPR proceedings.

The related civil action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware, captioned e-Numerate Solutions, Inc., and e-Numerate, LLC, v. Mattress Firm Holding Corp., Merrill Communications LLC, and Merrill Corp., No. 1:17-cv-00933, has been dismissed, as Patent Owner's infringement allegations are no more extensive than what is covered by the United States of America's authorization and consent. Since dismissal of that case, Patent Owner filed a lawsuit against the United States of America in the Court of Federal Claims, captioned e-Numerate Solutions, Inc. et al v. The United States of America, No. COFC-1-19-cv-00859, alleging infringement of the four patents at issue in IPRs 2018-01389/91/92/94. The Government has indicated that it will indemnify Merrill for any claim of infringement of any of the four patents at issue in the IPRs.

Therefore, Petitioner respectfully request the Board grant it permission to file motions to withdraw its counsel from the IPRs, as well as withdraw its participation in the IPR proceedings. Patent Owner has indicated that it does not oppose this request.

Best Regards,

Katherine Rahlin (counsel for Petitioner)
