INTRODUCTION

Teva Pharmaceuticals International GmbH's appeal stems from the Patent Trial and Appeal Board's Final Written Decision entered on February 18, 2020 (Paper 77) (the "Final Written Decision") in the above-captioned inter partes review of United States Patent No. 9,266,951. This notice is timely filed within 63 days of the Final Written Decision. 37 C.F.R. § 90.3(b)(1).

TEVA PHARMACEUTICALS INTERNATIONAL GMBH'S APPEAL

Please take notice that under 35 U.S.C. §§ 141(c), 142, 319; 37 C.F.R. §§ 90.2(a), 90.3(a); and Federal Circuit Rule 15, Patent Owner Teva Pharmaceuticals International GmbH hereby appeals to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from the Final Written Decision based on the "Decision, Institution of Inter Partes Review" entered on February 19, 2019 (Paper 14) (the "Institution Decision").

TEVA PHARMACEUTICALS INTERNATIONAL GMBH'S ISSUES ON APPEAL

In accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 90.2(a)(3)(ii), Teva's issues on appeal include at least: (i) whether the Board erred in construing the challenged claims; (ii) whether the Board erred in failing to conduct a lead-compound analysis; (iii) whether the Board erred in failing to separately analyze the obviousness of each claim; (iv) whether the Board erred in holding that a skilled artisan would have been motivated to combine the asserted references with a reasonable expectation of success; (v) whether the Board erred in its analysis of Teva's proffered evidence of objective indicia of non-obviousness, including but not limited to its holdings that Teva was not entitled to a presumption of nexus and did not show an actual nexus; (vi) whether the Board erred in denying Teva's motions to strike and exclude evidence; (vii) whether the Board erred in its ultimate conclusion that the claims were unpatentable; (viii) whether the Board's decision was arbitrary and capricious, including because it held the parties to different standards with respect to argument preservation and waiver and because it permitted Petitioner to introduce new theories and new evidence in reply and in supplemental briefing; (ix) whether the Administrative Patent Judges of the panel were unconstitutionally appointed under the Appointments Clause; (x) whether the Board erred in refusing to allow Teva to move to stay the proceeding until it could be heard by a panel of Administrative Patent Judges constitutionally appointed under the Appointments Clause; and (xi) any finding or determination supporting or related to these issues and all other issues decided adversely to Patent Owner in any order, decision, ruling, phone conference decision, and/or opinion.

Simultaneously with this submission, Teva is filing (i) a true and correct copy of this Notice of Appeal with the Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office and (ii) a true and correct copy of the same, along with the
