15 (Resumed)

16 BY MR. DESAI:

17 Q. Good afternoon, Dr. Slocum. We'll start off where we
18 were from yesterday, which is -- I think we were wrapping up
19 the discussion of the calculations that you had done.

20 Now, basically, the analysis you've done in this case
21 was injection force, the important design consideration at the 22 time of invention?

23 A. Yes, it was.

24 Q. And have you heard that in some of the testimony, you've 25 read that in some of the testimony at this trial?
