

UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION
Washington, D.C.

In the Matter of

CERTAIN AIR MATTRESS SYSTEMS, COMPONENTS THEREOF, AND METHODS OF USING THE SAME

Investigation No. 337-TA-971
(Remand)

ORDER

On December 26, 2017, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order holding that the appeal in Sizewise Rentals LLC v. International Trade Commission, Appeal No. 2017-2334, had become moot during the pendency of the appeal and remanded the investigation to the United States International Trade Commission to determine whether to vacate the underlying final determination relating to the sole patent at issue on appeal, United States Patent No. 5,904,172 (“the ‘172 patent”).

The Federal Circuit appeal at issue stemmed from Investigation No. 337-TA-971, Certain Air Mattress Systems, Components Thereof, and Methods of Using the Same. This investigation was instituted based on a complaint filed on October 16, 2015 by Complainants Select Comfort Corporation and Select Comfort SC Corporation (collectively, “Complainants”) that alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, by Sizewise Rentals LLC, American National Manufacturing Inc., and Dires LLC (d/b/a Personal Comfort Bed) (collectively, “Respondents”), based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain air mattress systems, components thereof, and methods of using the same that infringe certain claims of the ‘172 patent and United States Patent No. 7,389,554 (“the ‘554 patent”). See 80 Fed. Reg. 72,738 (Nov. 20, 2015).

On November 18, 2016, the presiding Administrative Law Judge issued a final initial determination (“ID”) finding no violation of section 337 with respect to either patent. The Commission determined to review the ID in part, and on review, the Commission found a violation of section 337 with regard to the ‘172 patent and issued a limited exclusion order prohibiting the unlicensed entry of infringing air mattress systems, components thereof, and methods of using the same. Certain Air Mattress Systems, Components Thereof, and Methods of Using the Same, Inv. No. 337-TA-971, Comm’n Op. at 61-62 (May 17, 2018); 82 Fed. Reg. 8623 (Jan. 27, 2017); 82 Fed. Reg. 23593-5 (May 23, 2017). The Commission found no violation with regard to the ‘554 patent.

On July 19, 2017, Respondents filed an appeal to the Federal Circuit requesting review of the Commission’s final determination regarding the ‘172 patent. Appeal No. 2017-2334. On October 18, 2017, the Commission filed a motion to dismiss the appeal as moot because the ‘172 patent had expired on July 28, 2017. Respondents did not object to the dismissal but requested vacatur of the Commission’s final determination. Complainants also did not object to dismissal, but did object to vacatur. On December 26, 2017, the Federal Circuit issued its Order in which the Commission’s motion was “granted to the extent that the appeal is deemed moot and the case is remanded for the Commission to address whether to vacate its final determination relating to the ‘172 patent.” Court Order at 3.

On February 26, 2018, the Commission ordered the parties to submit comments on whether the Commission should vacate its final determination regarding the ‘172 patent. Commission Order at 3. All relevant parties timely filed opening and reply submissions.

Upon consideration of this matter, including the parties’ submissions filed in response to the Commission’s Order, it is hereby ORDERED that:

(1) The Commission's final determination regarding the '172 patent in this investigation and the Commission's Limited Exclusion Order based thereon are vacated.

(2) The Secretary to the Commission shall serve a copy of this Order upon each party to the investigation.

The Commission's opinion is being issued concurrently herewith.

By order of the Commission.
