Introduction Page for Applicants

Applying for position with Background Solutions

Please complete this application as accurately as possible. The information furnished on this application is confidential and is to be utilized for the purposes of enabling the Background Solutions to determine your qualifications.

This application is subject to a complete and thorough review which will consist of verifying the information you have submitted regarding your personal background. As part of this review, family members and character references will be contacted, previous and current employment will be examined, your military service (if applicable) will be investigated, your driving and arrest history will be verified and any financial information provided will be evaluated. All areas of your background will be investigated.

The Background Solutions has relatively few circumstances that would cause an automatic failure or rejection from the application process. You are encouraged to answer all questions completely and honestly. While some issues of prior misconduct, such as prior illegal drug use, driving under the influence, theft or even arrest or convictions may be embarrassing or uncomfortable, they may not necessarily cause a rejection when evaluated with your entire personal history. Deliberate misstatements or omissions, however, will most likely be interpreted as untruthfulness. Since honest and integrity are core traits necessary for law enforcement offices, deception in the application process is usually a cause for rejection regardless of the nature or reason for the untruthfulness.
