4 JUDGE GERSTENBLITH: Hello, everyone. We are here
5 for oral argument in IPR2020-01265, Intel Corporation versus 6 ParkerVision, Inc. I am Judge Gerstenblith, and 7 appearing with me today are Judges Zecher and Ahmed. Starting 8 with Petitioner, will Counsel please enter your appearance for 9 the record?

10 MR. ZUBLER: Good morning, Your Honors. This is 11 Todd Zubler from the WilmerHale law firm, representing Intel
12 Corporation. I am joined today by Lead Counsel in this 13 proceeding, Grant Rowan, as well as Counsel Michael 14 Summersgill, and Haixia Lin.

15 JUDGE GERSTENBLITH: Morning. And who do we have on 16 for Patent Owner?

17 MR. CHARKOW: Good morning, Your Honors. This is 18 Jason Charkow, from the Daignault Iyer firm. With me today, I 19 have Stephanie Mandir, also of the Daignault Iyer firm, and 20 Ron Daignault, as well as a few corporate representatives,
21 Jeff Parker (ph), Richard Harland (ph), and Greg Rollins (ph).

22 JUDGE GERSTENBLITH: Good morning and welcome. Mr. Charkow,
23 I just -- your sound is a little bit -- sounds a 24 little bit like you're removed from whatever speaker you're 25 using, I just want to make sure that the court reporter can 26 capture everything that's being said. I could hear you, just

1 want to make sure it's also captured for that.

2 MR. CHARKOW: Is this better, Your Honor?

3 JUDGE GERSTENBLITH: That is a little better, yes.

4 If for any reason we have trouble, we'll let you know, or if 5 the court reporter has any trouble, please feel free to jump
6 in and let us know. I want to make sure the transcript is as 7 clear as possible, but thank you.

8 We set forth the procedure for today's oral hearing
9 in our order granting the parties request for an oral hearing,
10 which is Paper 33. Each party will have 60 minutes of total
11 argument time. However, Patent Owner has requested that a
12 LEAP practitioner present argument, as well, so Patent Owner
13 will have an extra 15 minutes of argument time for a total of 14 75 minutes.

15 We will begin with Petitioner, who may present its 16 case with regard to the challenged claims and grounds set 17 forth in the Petition. Petitioner may reserve time for 18 rebuttal. Thereafter, Patent Owner may respond to 19 Petitioner's argument and may reserve time for sur-rebuttal.
20 Petitioner may then present its rebuttal followed by Patent
21 Owner's sur-rebuttal.

22 In this video format, I do not have a timer that I
23 can share with you. However, when it's your turn to come up
24 for your opening, if you would please let me know how much 25 time you would like to reserve for rebuttal, I'm happy to 26 remind you when you reach that point in your opening argument.

1 A few other things just to keep in mind for this 2 particular hearing and the video nature. This hearing, at the 3 moment, is open to the public, and there are and may and will 4 -- be additional folks listening on the phone. It is my 5 understanding that there is a pending motion to seal filed by 6 Petitioner.

7 We discussed his motion during our pre-hearing conference
8 on October 26th. The panel does not need argument on this 9 motion today, although I may ask for an update on the motion
10 after these introductory remarks.

11 However, to the extent that Petitioner would like to 12 argue its motion or to the extent that Patent Owner would like 13 to speak to the issues addressed in the motion which pertain
14 to Patent Owner's alleged confidential information, we can 15 take any argument on that after the parties conclude the main 16 part of the hearing and we can seal the courtroom by 17 disconnecting the public line.

18 So during this proceeding, unless we get to that 19 point, please do not raise any information that either side
20 alleges is confidential.

21 Also, please be as clear as possible during your 22 argument regarding what slide or figure or exhibit you may be 23 referring to so that the record is clear and that we may 24 follow along. We have electronic versions of all of your 25 demonstratives and all of the documents in the record.

26 Additionally, when it's not your turn to speak,
