Tim,

How would you like to tackle Eric's reply to my "thank you for the meeting" note of last week?

I think he and Dennis are on the same page re. the potential upside on local classifieds, don't you? and what about his comment re. "national" classifieds? Both of these are speculative at this point, are they not?

Let me know and I'll close the loop with him personally, noting that BBi-TV response is coming.

Okay?

Peter
