Hi Milton,

Sorry to hear you've been traveling so much. Hope you can settle in to a healthier work mode soon :>)

Yes, the drawings are basically the same as what you gave me, except I've added in some reference numerals and a connecting line or two here and there.

I am free Tuesday afternoon to discuss your additions (pls bring them in print and on disk). If I'm golfing that morning, then perhaps we can arrange to meet at the New Otani or where you are staying in Waikiki if it's convenient for you to head back that way. If you want to meet in the downtown area, then we can meet at my office or somewhere more relaxing nearby. I'll have signature papers ready for you too, so it can be filed after I've incorporated your additions. Let me know if you're free for dinner afterwards too. I've got a sushi place you should try.
