EXAMINATION

BY MR. JONES:

Q Good morning, Dr. Tallon.

A Good morning.

Q Do you understand that you are here today to testify in relation to a reply declaration submitted for IPR2020-01533 for U.S. Patent Number 9,816,046 and IPR2020-1532, which is for U.S. Patent Number 9,644,169?

A I do.

Q And I'm going to note for the record that under the exhibit numbering system that's been used, both of those have been marked as Exhibits 1086 for the respective IPRs, and I believe in some of the previous depositions where we've had the situation where the -- we have exhibits with the same number and that largely have similar content that we've agreed that when I ask a question about one of those exhibits that to the extent that the other exhibit in the other IPR is the same, that those responses to questions about that will apply to both?

MR. CHAKANSKY: As long as they are exactly the same and the content it the same, yes.

MR. JONES: Okay.
