Yeah, that is the issue: I've had folks try to use new evidence in sur-replies and there is the issue of new arguments in a sur-reply that some times the Board wants a list of alleged new arguments in the sur-reply. In any event, I just got word that TCT is fine with a week. Does that work?

Has TCT filed any objections to our exhibits? If not, TCT cannot file a motion to exclude. For sur-replies, under the rules, we can file only Baker transcript; and the only other thing that we might file is the errata if any of Fernald deposition transcript for completeness.

But appreciate that you are asking your client regarding the extension. Please let us know either way ASAP, and we would like seek authorization from the Board ASAP if an agreement of extension cannot be reached.

I think that will push it too close to the motion to exclude. I could ask if TCT if a week is OK.

Can you please check your expert's availability between March 25 and April 6? Also, does TCT object to extending Due Date 3 from April 11 to April 25?
