Proceedings: IN CHAMBERS – SCHEDULING ORDER

The Court has reviewed the parties' joint scheduling report (Docket No. 155) in the Nantworks (20-7872) matter. There are two issues and the Court's modification of the final dates:

1. Whether the fact discovery cut-off should be June 30, 2022 or July 14, 2022.
The Court selects July 14, 2022.
2. Whether the parties should have final contentions deadlines and whether the amendments should be as a matter of right.
Yes to deadlines; no to allowing amendments as a matter of right. As Defendant emphasizes, the parties disputed whether to use Judge Guilford's local rules or the N.D. Cal. Local rules. Plaintiff wanted Judge Guilford's and the Court agreed to use those rules. Those rules do not do permit parties to amend their contentions as a matter of right but rather under a good cause standard, unlike the N.D. Cal. Rules. However, Judge Guilford's rules still have final contentions deadlines after the Markman hearing, and the case law and logic dictate that the parties should be able to amend their contentions to do so under the good cause standard. Thus, the Court sets final contentions deadlines and orders that the good cause standard will apply to any amendments, as stated in Judge Guilford's local rules. This includes Plaintiff's trade secret contentions, although not covered by Judge Guilford's local rules, to keep consistency.
3. The following dates are changed from the parties' proposed dates:
  - a) Hearing on summary judgement/Daubert motions from December 15, 2022 to December 19, 2022 at 8:30 a.m.
  - b) Replies in support of motions in limine from April 4, 2023 to April 3.
  - c) Pre-trial conference from April 11, 2023 to April 13, 2023 at 8:30 a.m.
