NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on October 22, 2020 at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, Plaintiff Applied Materials, Inc. ("Applied") will and hereby does move for a preliminary injunction to enjoin Defendant Demaray LLC ("Demaray") from proceeding with patent infringement suits against Applied's customers—Intel Corporation ("Intel") and Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd., et al. ("Samsung")—during the pendency of this action. See Demaray LLC v. Intel Corporation, No. 6:20-cv-634 (W.D. Tex. July 14, 2020); Demaray LLC v.
Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd, et al., No. 6:20-cv-636 (W.D. Tex. July 14, 2020). The Motion is based on this Notice of Motion, the Points and Authorities, and on other such evidence as may be presented in connection with this Motion.

A preliminary injunction is expressly authorized and warranted under the circumstances of this case and the relevant law. Demaray sued two of Applied's customers—Intel and Samsung—for patent infringement based on products manufactured by Applied that were supplied to Intel and Samsung. While Demaray accused Applied's products, Demaray did not sue Applied.

Therefore, to protect its customers, Applied initiated the instant declaratory judgment action to seek resolution of issues that would prove dispositive of the issues presented in Demaray's customer suits. The patent infringement, patent ownership, and patent license issues presented in this action will be dispositive of the majority—and potentially all—of the issues in Demaray's customer suits against Intel and Samsung. Under such circumstances, the interests of judicial efficiency, preventing needless waste of judicial and party resources, and preventing the possibility of conflicting decisions, a temporary halt of Demaray's customer suits is warranted.
