The present invention allows a client that may have multiple accounts, each on distinct, unconnected messaging servers, to be able to be a relay point between or among those messaging servers. In the system of the present invention, at least one user with accounts on the multiple servers would log on to each server. When that user wants to create a chat conference among people from each of the isolated servers, the relay user can invite each person to the conversation and relay messages from users within the conference on a given server, to the other users from the other server(s). The relay can be implemented easily by "echoing" messages coming from one server to other servers that are connected to the relay client.
