            (Proceedings commence at 1:33 p.m.)
2
            THE COURT: We're here on several motions and I'm 3
   going to start by asking Ms. Copp to call the case.
4
            THE CLERK: Yes, your Honor.
5
            Calling Case No. WA-20-CV-1128, styled, StratosAudio, Incorporated vs. Subaru of America,
6
   Incorporated. Called for sealed motions hearing.
7
8
            THE COURT: All right. Could I get announcements 9
   starting with the plaintiff. Anybody here from the 10
   plaintiff?
11
            MR. LAMBERSON: Good morning, your Honor.
            Jonathan Lamberson for Plaintiff StratosAudio.
12
13
   With me today is Jeff Park, Michael Songer, Dan Sternberg, 14
   Hallie Kiernan and Henry Huang.
15
            THE COURT: All right. Very good. Good to see 16
   all of you today.
            And on behalf of defendants, please.
17
18
            MR. GUARAGNA: Good afternoon, your Honor.
19
            It's John Guaragna from DLA Piper.
20
            THE COURT: All right.
21
            MR. GUARAGNA: Along -- good to see you, your 22
           Along with me, we have Mr. Paul Steadman and Matt
23
   Satchwell, also from DLA paper, and the three of us will 24
   be the primary speakers today.
25
            THE COURT: All right. Very good.

I know we had sent kind of the Court's preliminary thoughts shortly before lunch, and so, you kind of saw the order that we had laid the motions out in in that chart. I don't know if you want to take them in that order, if the parties want to address them in a different order.

MR. GUARAGNA: I could maybe speak to that and streamline things a bit, your Honor. John Guaragna from DLA Piper.

So, your Honor, with respect to the summary judgment motion and the Court's tentative ruling, I wanted to appraise the Court that yesterday, we had informed the plaintiff that we were withdrawing our defense as to infectious unenforceability on the 307 patent, which I understand the plaintiff agrees mooted that issue with respect to summary judgment. So I think that issue is off the table and the Court need not address it. But if the plaintiff wanted to comment, I could pause there for a moment.

THE COURT: Okay. Just if Mr. Lamberson or Songer, Sternberg, somebody'd just confirm that's agreed to.

MR. LAMBERSON: I think if -- I think if they're withdrawing it, it is agreed to. The only thing I would point out, it was totally briefed and if the Court's already written it up, I don't -- we don't much care

1
2
   whether it's ordered or dropped. I don't know 3
   procedurally whether it matters.
            THE COURT: Okay. Yeah. If it doesn't matter 4
   procedurally to the parties, then we'll just hold that 5
   that one is moot and won't issue any further ruling
6
7
   regarding that; and that's with regard to infectious 8 unenforceability of the 307 patent. Okay.
9
            MR. GUARAGNA: I'm sorry, your Honor.
10
            THE COURT: Oh, go ahead, Mr. Guaragna.
11
            MR. GUARAGNA: I just had -- thank you, your 12
           I just had another comment on the summary judgment 13
   motion. With respect to the other two grounds on the 14
   motion for partial summary judgment, Subaru is willing to 15
   rest on the papers and could give the Court back that time 16
   for the argument this afternoon.
17
            THE COURT: Okay. Perfect. And that's with 18 regard to docket No. 101.
19
            MR. GUARAGNA: Correct, your Honor.
20
            THE COURT: Correct? Okay. Excellent.
                                                      Well,
21
   we'll issue a ruling on the papers that's along the lines 22
   of what we indicated in the chart. And I'm trying to read 23
   to catch up with the e-mail. Let's see, now, do we need 24
   to hear argument on docket 100 and that being one of the 25
   motions to strike the expert opinion?
