"I run a solo patent law practice, with no support staff. I depend on accurate and efficient patent searching to best advise my clients. I have hired Sherman Patent Search Group three times so far and have been extremely happy with the results each time. The principal analyst, Eugene, sees every search from the eye of an seasoned examiner. He is at the top of his game. You can thus be assured that no stone is unturned and that your search results will anticipate as closely as possible what an examiner will find. He is extremely personable, professional and easy to work with. Highly recommended!"
