ORDER

The Court enters this order sua sponte. In light of the Second Joint Notice Regarding Mediation (Dkt. No. 120) filed by Plaintiff BillJCo, LLC (“BillJCo”) and Defendants Hewlett Packard Enterprise Company and Aruba Networks, LLC’s (collectively, “Defendants”) (together with BillJCo, the “Parties”), the Court is of the opinion that the Parties might benefit from an effort to resolve their disputes via mediation. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS the Parties to mediate in this case promptly and at a mutually agreeable date. The Parties are directed to contact the mediator forthwith and use their best efforts to schedule a date for mediation at the earliest reasonable time. Should the parties not reach an agreement as to the date for mediation, the Mediator shall set the mediation. The mediation shall be conducted by the Hon. David Folsom, 6002-B Summerfield Drive, Texarkana, Texas 75503, dfolsom@jw.com. To ensure that mediation is as productive as possible, the Court hereby ORDERS that each party shall personally attend such mediation with lead counsel, local authority to act on and compromise on all pending disputes. No party, counsel or representative shall leave the mediation without the approval of the mediator. The district's applicable local rules regarding ADR/mediation shall otherwise govern and apply in all respects.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 14th day of April, 2022.
