INTRODUCTION

The Scheduling Orders in these matters originally set a hearing date for IPR2022-01006 of September 12, 2023, and for IPR2022-01045 and IPR2022-01089 of September 28, 2023. See IPR2022-01006, Paper 24; IPR2022-01045 and IPR2022-01089, Paper 22. In the Scheduling Order for IPR2022-01045 and IPR2022-01089, the panel noted:

The Board is aware that these two cases are also related to pending IPR2022-01006. The Scheduling Order in the 01006 proceeding, Paper 24, was entered on December 1, 2022. That Scheduling Order, as well as the Scheduling Order in the two proceedings now before us, provide the parties with considerable flexibility to adjust several due dates, without Board approval, to coordinate the due dates among the 01006, 01045, and 01089 proceedings. The parties may contact the Board to discuss further coordination of due dates among these three related cases if they want further coordination.

Paper 22, 2, n.2.

Subsequently, the parties filed a Joint Notice of Stipulation To Adjust and Consolidate Schedules of Related Proceedings in each of these matters. See IPR2022-01006, Paper 29 (“Joint Stipulation”). Therein, the parties stipulated to deadlines that consolidated the schedules of all three matters, including moving the hearing date in IPR2022-01045 and IPR2022-01089 from September 28, 2023, to September 12, 2023 (which was the date scheduled for IPR2022-01006). See id. at 1.

REVISED SCHEDULE

Due to a scheduling conflict, the panel is no longer available for a hearing in any of these matters on September 12, 2023. Accordingly, the hearing date for all three matters will be set for September 28, 2023, which is the date originally set for IPR2022-01045 and IPR2022-01089.

IPR2022-01006 (Patent 9,665,705 B2)
IPR2022-01045 (Patent 9,269,208 B2)
IPR2022-01089 (Patent 9,269,208 B2)

Although the panel assumes that the parties will otherwise abide by the stipulated consolidated schedule set forth in the Joint Stipulation, no other deadlines are explicitly addressed or revised in this Revised Scheduling Order.
