position. Q. In your current declaration, which I'll just 7 call your declaration, have you indicated at all that you have taken any position inconsistent with something in your initial declaration?

A. I think so. So, for example, in claim 10 11 construction, I propose a term that was not discussed in 12 the previous -- in the previous declaration because it 13 contained an error that I didn't even spot until I did 14 this declaration.

Q. Okay. Thank you. I won't be asking you about 15 16 2001 today, but I just want to make clear that when I refer to your declaration, I'm referring to Exhibit 2004, and not Exhibit 2001.

19 Is that understood?

20 A. Yes. We've agreed to that already.

21 Q. Okay. What is your current occupation?

A. I'm a faculty member at Carnegie Mellon 22

University in Pittsburgh.

Q. Can you turn to paragraph 14, please.

25 A. I'm there.

Q. In paragraph 14 you indicate that you are licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and that you are admitted to the patent bar; correct?

A. Yes.

5 Q. Are you offering testimony today as a legal 6 expert?

A. No. I think if you read the next two sentences of paragraph 14, it explains that.

Q. Okay. So you're only offering testimony today as a technical expert; correct? 10

A. It depends on what question you ask me. If 11 12 you ask me a legal question and I know the answer, I'll 13 answer it.

Q. Do you practice as a patent attorney?

15 A. No. I don't maintain a law office. So it's 16 not safe for me to engage in patent matters. I do give 17 informal advice to colleagues at the university, but I 18 do not have clients.

19 Q. Approximately when was the last time that you 20 practiced as a patent attorney?

A. Well, I was -- the last time I practiced full time as a patent attorney was in 1997. I don't recall 23 if I took on any matters after leaving the Webb Law 24 Firm, which was in 19---

Q. I apologize. Continue.

A. I'm sorry. It was my fault. I broke the answer into two parts.

3 I left the Webb Law Firm, W-E-B-B, in 1997 to come back to Carnegie Mellon University.

5 Q. And were you employed as an attorney at the Webb Law Firm in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania?

A. Yes, from 1990 to 1997.

8 Q. Who did you meet with to prepare for your 9 deposition today?

10 A. I met with counsel.

A. Yes. I met with Mr. Theiss. 12

Q. Did you meet with any other counsel?

14 A. Yes. I met with one of his partners.

15 Q. Do you remember who that was?

16 A. Sure. Just a second. I'm looking it up. Get

17 the full name correct. Dan Golub.

18 O. Okay. Thank you.

19 A. And I met with --

Q. Can you turn to --

21 A. I met with --

22 Q. Sorry. I apologize.

23 A. -- Alexandra, Chen, also.

Q. Can you turn to paragraph 19, please.

25 A. Yes. I'm there.

Q. And above paragraph 19 is the header

2 "Materials Considered"; right?

A. Yes.

-24···· Q. Okay. In the first bullet point, you say that 5 you considered all materials filed in this IPR to date; correct?

A. Yes.

7 8 Q. I'm assuming "to date" here means up to the 9 point that you signed your declaration; is that right? 10

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And in the first bullet point, again, it says "All materials filed in this IPR to date."

13 Does that mean that you considered all 14 exhibits cited in the petition?

A. Yes.

16 Q. And does "All materials filed in this IPR to date" mean that you considered all the documents cited 17 in Dr. Houh's declaration, Exhibit 1003?

A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. I just want to clarify something for 21 the record. Sorry. I just caught this.

22 In paragraph 20, second line from the bottom, it looks like there's a typo. It says "'386 patent." 23

24 I think you mean there '692 patent; is that

25 right?
