In the Order Granting Requests for Oral Argument (IPR2022-01430, Paper 19; IPR2022-01433, Paper 19) dated November 1, 2023, the Board instructed the parties regarding any objections that remain after meeting and conferring: “The objections must identify with particularity which portions of the demonstrative exhibits are subject to objection and include a one-sentence statement of the reason for each objection. No argument or further explanation is permitted. The Board will consider any objections and schedule a conference call if deemed necessary. Otherwise, the Board will reserve ruling on the objections. Any objection to demonstrative exhibits that is not timely presented will be considered waived.” IPR2022-01433, Paper 19 at 5.
