Subject: RE: IPR2023-00512 Apotex, Inc. v. Celgene Corp - Error in Case Caption
Date: Friday, July 21, 2023 9:22:26 AM

Counsel,

The Board notes Petitioner's identification by email on July 20, 2023, of the misspelling of Patent Owner's name in captions in this proceeding. The error appears to have originated on the face of the Petition. The Board will use the indicated correct spelling of "Celgene" on future papers, as should the parties.

Dear Sir or Madam:

We represent the Petitioner in the subject case. There is a typographical error in the case caption, i.e., "Cellgene," should be spelled with only one "l". What is the procedure to correct this error?

Thanks.
