About the Name

Why the name Eudora?

When looking for a name for this new Post Office Protocol mail program, we thought immediately of the title of the short story Why I Live at the P.O., and named the program after the author of the story, Eudora Welty.

Why I Live at the P.O. can be found in a collection entitled A Curtain of Green and other stories (Harcourt Brace & Co.). Ms. Welty's stories are funny, sad, and fascinating; she's surely one of the great American writers.

This command lets you link any piece of text or graphic to a URL. For example, your message can contain the text “For more information on our products, Click here.”

Sending Emoticons

Emoticons are characters used to indicate an emotion or expression. In internet communication, emoticons such as smiley faces can add an extra level of context to email messages.

There are three ways to put emoticons in an outgoing email message. You can type the emoticon characters directly into your message, you can use the emoticon pull-down menu in a new composition window, or you can use the “Insert Emoticon” command under the Edit menu.

To type an emoticon

1. When composing a new email message, click your cursor in the body of the message.
2. Type the emoticon characters. Eudora will automatically replace the characters with a graphic emoticon.

Emoticons

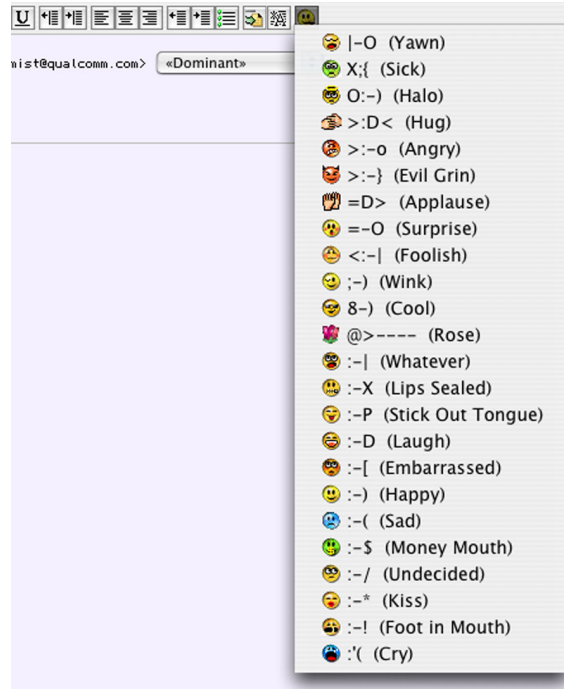

-O (Yawn)	:- (Whatever)
X;{ (Sick)	:-X (Lips Sealed)
O:-) (Halo)	:-P (Stick Out Tongue)
>:D< (Hug)	:-D (Laugh)
>:-o (Angry)	:-[(Embarrassed)
>:-} (Evil Grin)	:-) (Happy)
=D> (Applause)	:- (Sad)
==O (Surprise)	:-$ (Money Mouth)
<:- (Foolish)	:-/ (Undecided)
;-) (Wink)	:-* (Kiss)
8-) (Cool)	:-! (Foot in Mouth)
@>----- (Rose)	:'((Cry)

For example if you type the characters :-) in a new email message, Eudora will replace :-) with the happy face 😊 graphic icon.

To choose an emoticon from a pull-down menu

1. When composing a new email, click your cursor in the body of the message.
2. From the formatting toolbar above your new message window, click the  button.

The emoticon submenu appears with the list of available emoticons.

3. From the list, click on an emoticon.
