Tony Xu CEO & Co-

Founder

Tony Xu is the CEO and co-founder of DoorDash, a technology company passionate about transforming local businesses and dedicated to enabling new ways of working, earning, and living. Born in China, Tony came to America with his parents and grew up working in his mom’s restaurant. He started DoorDash to help small business owners succeed. Prior to co-founding DoorDash in 2013, Tony worked in Product at Square, led special projects for the CEO and CFO at eBay, and began his career at McKinsey and Company. He holds a B.S. with high honors in Industrial Engineering and Operations Research from UC Berkeley and an MBA from Stanford Graduate School of Business, where he was an Arjay Miller Scholar.

Andy Fang Chief Technical

Officer & Co-Founder

Andy Fang is the co-founder and Chief Technical Officer of DoorDash, a technology company passionate about transforming local businesses and dedicated to enabling new ways of working, earning, and living. Andy leads DoorDash's Consumer Verticals and International Engineering team where he is focused on growing DoorDash's customer use cases beyond delivery and increasing DoorDash's geographic footprint outside the United States. In this role, Andy is responsible for the overall product vision, technology roadmap and architectural direction of the DoorDash consumer and international platforms. Andy holds a BS in Computer Science from Stanford University, where he met fellow cofounders Tony Xu and Stanley Tang whereupon the concept for DoorDash was born.

Stanley Tang Chief Product

Officer & Co-Founder

Stanley is the Chief Product Officer and co-founder of DoorDash, a technology company passionate about transforming local businesses and dedicated to enabling new ways of working, earning, and living. He founded DoorDash at the age of 20 while he was a student at Stanford and later graduated with a B.S. in Computer Science. Stanley is also a best-selling author of eMillions and was named one of Forbes' 30 Under 30.

DoorDash is a technology company that connects people with the best in their cities. We do this by empowering local businesses and in turn, generate new ways for people to earn, work and live.
