OFFICE ACTION

ISSUE/MAILING DATE:

THIS IS A SUBSEQUENT FINAL ACTION.

This Office action is in response to applicant's communication filed on April 16, 2012.

The applicant (1) amended the identification of goods; and (2) argued against the Section 2(d) refusal. No. (1) is acceptable. The applicant's amended identification of goods has been entered into the record.

Refusal Under Section 2(d) – Likelihood of Confusion

Registration was refused under Trademark Act Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. §1052(d), because the mark for which registration is sought so resembles the mark shown in U.S. Registration No. 3251714 as to be likely, when used on the identified goods, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.

The examining attorney has considered the applicant's arguments carefully but has found them unpersuasive. For the reasons set forth below, the refusal under Trademark Act Section 2(d) is now made FINAL with respect to U.S. Registration No. 3251714. See 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); 37 C.F.R. §2.64(a).

The applicant has applied to register SIMPLY ORGANIC GURL (Standard Character Drawing) for "Organic hair care products, namely, shampoos, conditioners, setting gels, styling gels, heat activated hair setting preparations, hair sprays; organic skin, body and facial care products, namely, lotions, moisturizers, toners, exfoliators, hand creams, foot creams, shaving creams, cleansers, scrubs, beauty masks, vanishing creams, anti-aging cleansers, anti-wrinkle creams, lip balms, bar soaps, liquid soaps, deodorants.”

U.S. Registration No. 3251714 is ORGANIC GIRL (Standard Character Drawing) for “Body lotion; Body scrub.”

Prior Office actions have explained at length the similarities of the applicant’s and the registrant’s marks.

To summarize, the dominant wording in the marks are phonetic equivalents: “ORGANIC GURL” and “ORGANIC GIRL.”

As discussed in the October 12, 2011 Office action, the specimen submitted with the amendment to allege use shows that the applicant emphasizes the wording “ORGANIC GURL” in the display of its mark. The wording “ORGANIC GURL” is written in large font horizontally across the face of the bottle. The word “SIMPLY” is in much smaller font and is written vertically next to the word “ORGANIC.” Consumers who take a quick glance at the bottle are likely to see the applicant’s mark as “ORGANIC GURL” rather than as “SIMPLY ORGANIC GURL.”

With respect to a comparison of the applicant’s and the registrant’s goods, the goods are identical in part.

Both the applicant and the registrant manufacture/sell body “lotions” and body “scrubs.”

To the extent the goods are not identical, they are highly related. The goods of the parties need not be identical or directly competitive to find a likelihood of confusion. See Safety-Kleen Corp. v. Dresser Indus., Inc., 518 F.2d 1399, 1404, 186 USPQ 476, 480 (C.C.P.A. 1975); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i). Rather, it is sufficient to show that because of the conditions surrounding their marketing, or because they are otherwise related in some manner, the goods would be encountered by the same consumers under circumstances such that offering the goods under confusingly similar marks would lead to the mistaken belief that they come from, or are in some way associated with, the same source. In re Iolo Techs., LLC, 95 USPQ2d 1498, 1499 (TTAB 2010); see In re Martin’s Famous Pastry Shoppe, Inc., 748 F.2d 1565, 1566-68, 223 USPQ 1289, 1290 (Fed. Cir. 1984); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i).

Attached to the August 3, 2010 Office action is a representative sample of third-party marks registered for use in connection with the same or similar goods as those of both applicant and registrant. This evidence shows that the goods listed therein, namely, body lotions and/or body scrubs (registrant’s goods), and hair, skin, body, and/or facial care products (applicant’s goods), are of a kind that may emanate from a single source under a single mark. See In re Davey Prods. Pty Ltd., 92 USPQ2d 1198, 1203 (TTAB 2009); In re Albert Trostel & Sons Co., 29 USPQ2d 1783, 1785-86 (TTAB 1993); In re Mucky Duck Mustard Co., 6 USPQ2d 1467, 1470 n.6 (TTAB 1988); TMEP §1207.01(d)(iii).

The Internet evidence attached to this Office action consists of website excerpts from <http://www.etsy.com/shop/toadstoolsoaps>; <http://skinbotanica.com/sumbody.html>;

<http://www.sephora.com/body-scrub-exfoliants-bath-body?pageSize=-1>; <http://www.sephora.com/hair>;

<http://www.supersalve.com/shower-products.html>; and <http://www.malibuc.com/content/default.aspx>, all online websites where body and hair care products can be purchased. This evidence establishes that the same entity commonly manufactures the relevant goods and markets the goods under the same mark and that the relevant goods are sold or provided through the same trade channels and used by the same classes of consumers in the same fields of use. Therefore, applicant’s and registrant’s goods are considered related for likelihood of confusion purposes.^[1] See, e.g., In re Davey Prods. Pty Ltd., 92 USPQ2d 1198, 1202-04 (TTAB 2009); In re Toshiba Med. Sys. Corp., 91 USPQ2d 1266, 1268-69, 1271-72 (TTAB 2009).

The applicant argues in its April 16, 2012 response that, “There is no likelihood of confusion, and there never has been any confusion.”

The test under Trademark Act Section 2(d) is whether there is a likelihood of confusion. It is unnecessary to show actual confusion in establishing likelihood of confusion. TMEP §1207.01(d)(ii); e.g., Weiss Assocs. Inc. v. HRL Assocs. Inc., 902 F.2d 1546, 1549, 14 USPQ2d 1840, 1842-43 (Fed. Cir. 1990). The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board stated as follows:

[A]pplicant’s assertion that it is unaware of any actual confusion occurring as a result of the contemporaneous use of the marks of applicant and registrant is of little probative value in an ex parte proceeding such as this where we have no evidence pertaining to the nature and extent of the use by applicant and registrant (and thus cannot ascertain whether there has been ample opportunity for confusion to arise, if it were going to); and the registrant has no chance to be heard from (at least in the absence of a consent agreement, which applicant has not submitted in this case).

In re Kangaroos U.S.A., 223 USPQ 1025, 1026-27 (TTAB 1984).

For the foregoing reasons, the Section 2(d) refusal is maintained and made FINAL.

Appeal Will Be Resumed

On February 16, 2011, the applicant filed a Notice of Appeal with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (the “Board”). On September 21, 2011, the Board remanded the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the applicant’s amendment to allege use. In a non-final Office action dated October 12, 2011, the examining attorney raised a new issue with respect to this application. While the applicant’s April 16, 2012 response satisfactorily addresses the identification of goods issue raised in the October 12 Office action, its arguments fail to overcome the Section 2(d) refusal. Accordingly, the applicant is hereby notified that the appeal will be resumed with respect to the Section 2(d) likelihood of confusion refusal. TMEP §715.04(b). The applicant should not file a second Notice of Appeal with the Board.

If the applicant has any questions concerning this Office action, please telephone the assigned examining attorney.

Home Sumbody

How many times have you read the label on the back of a beauty product and been unable to pronounce the long list of chemical ingredients? The president of Sumbody Skin Care, Deborah Burnes, understands your confusion. By only using natural ingredients in all their skin and body care products including cleansers, moisturizers, serums, masks, bath salts, hair care, lip balm, and body butters, Sumbody is able to clear acne, smooth out fine lines and wrinkles, and calm skin irritations better than any product that contains harmful ingredients.

Sumbody prefers to use the finest ingredients even if that means smaller profit margins. They know that skin prefers things like Cucumber, Tea Tree Oil, Shea Butter, Sea Salt, Avocado, Apricot, Lavender, and Goat Milk over parabens, petroleum, animal oils, sulfates, or artificial preservatives.

Sumbody buys organic and locally-produced ingredients as often as possible. They are committed to using the earth's resources as effectively as they can. From using recycled lumber in their stores to minimizing packaging waste, they are committed to being green from the inside out.

MORE INFO DIRECTIONS INGREDIENTS TESTIMONIALS

What It Does:

Gently, yet effectively, sloughs off the surface layer of dead skin cells leaving skin refreshingly clean and revitalized.

Features & Benefits:

- Ultra-fine, natural walnut grains gently buff away only the top layer of dead cells without irritating or drying skin
- Leaves skin feeling radiantly smooth with a polished texture
- Panthenol (Pro Vitamin B5) infuses vital moisture to skin
- Helps normalize the natural exfoliation rate of skin
- Pure essential oil of eucalyptus stimulates the senses
- Gentle formula mild enough for everyday use
- Paraben-Free, Propylene Glycol-Free, DEA-Free, Gluten-Free
- 100% Vegan

Wellness Ingredients:

- Panthenol – This powerful antioxidant is also known as Pro Vitamin B5. A fast-penetrating moisturizer that can be beneficial to soothe burns (chemical/thermal/sun). Promotes healthy skin regeneration.
- Walnut Grains Gently buff away only the top layer of dead cells without irritating or drying skin.

Who Needs It:

All ages and all skin types who desire a mild exfoliant for the body.
