AMENDMENT FOR SERIAL NO. 87/939686

We respectfully submit the following amendment in the above-identified application.

IN THE APPLICATION

Please amend the identification of services to the following:

Class 45: Providing legal information, namely legal information about civil rights, personal injury, business law, and criminal proffered to clients hired by applicant and not pertaining to membership of any social club organization

REMARKS

Through its counsel, Applicant submitted the amendment to the Examining Attorney for her consideration and she noted that the identification would be acceptable to obviate the Section 2(d). Thus, the present application is now in condition for publication. We respectfully request the Examiner allow the above-identified application to proceed to publication upon amending the identification of services as requested above.

Dear Ms. Evans:

Thank you for your email. Your client's suggested identification would be acceptable to obviate the Section 2(d). At this stage in the proceeding, your client would need to request the TTAB remand the application to the Office in order for me to take the identification into consideration. See TBMP 1209.04. If you have questions regarding the exact procedure, please contact the TTAB.

Best regards,

Heather A. Sales
