United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)
Office Action (Official Letter) About Applicant's Trademark Application

U.S. Application Serial No. 90833571

Mark: NOTICIAS.TV

Correspondence Address:

David W. Grace
LOEB & LOEB LLP
10100 SANTA MONICA BLVD., SUITE 2200
LOS ANGELES CA 90067 UNITED STATES

Applicant: Weather Group Television

Reference/Docket No. 230685-00033

Correspondence Email Address: trademarks@loeb.com

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION AFTER FINAL ACTION DENIED

Issue date: May 19, 2023

Applicant's request for reconsideration is denied. See 37 C.F.R. §2.63(b)(3). The trademark examining attorney has carefully reviewed applicant's request and determined the request did not: (1) raise a new issue, (2) resolve all the outstanding issue(s), (3) provide any new or compelling evidence with regard to the outstanding issue(s), or (4) present analysis and arguments that were persuasive or shed new light on the outstanding issue(s). TMEP §§715.03(a)(ii)(B), 715.04(a).

Accordingly, the following refusal made final in the Office action dated November 15, 2022 are maintained and continued:

- Section 2(e)(1) Refusal for a Mark that is Merely Descriptive

See TMEP §§715.03(a)(ii)(B), 715.04(a).

All of the arguments raised in the November 15, 2022 final Office action are incorporated herein in response to applicant's Request for Reconsideration. In addition, the trademark examining attorney notes that applicant's Request inappropriately relies on USPTO v. Booking.com B.V., 591 U.S. ____ (2020) and U.S.P.T.O v. Booking.com B.V., 915 F.3d. 171 (2020). At issue in that case was whether a mark consisting of a generic term combined with a generic top-level domain name could be registrable. The mark in that case was refused on the basis that it was generic in relation to the services at issue. Applicant's mark is refused as merely descriptive under Section 2(e)(1) of the Trademark act, which is a different inquiry. While the April 8, 2022 Office action advised applicant that its mark may be generic, a generic refusal has not been issued in this case.

Further, and as noted previously, applicant fails to explain why the combination of the terms "NOTICIAS.TV" creates a unique, incongruous or otherwise non-descriptive meaning in relation to applicant's services.

For all the foregoing reasons, the Request for Reconsideration is denied.

If applicant has already filed an appeal with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the Board will be notified to resume the appeal. See TMEP §715.04(a).

If applicant has not filed an appeal and time remains in the response period for the final Office action, applicant has the remainder of that time to (1) file another request for reconsideration that complies with and/or overcomes any outstanding final requirement(s) and/or refusal(s), and/or (2) file a notice of appeal to the Board. TMEP §715.03(a)(ii)(B).

Cuando la tragedia golpea a una familia de manera reiterada y las palabras pierden toda su capacidad para expresar el dolor, la angustia y el desconcierto, el lamento parece el único camino. Pero no siempre es así, como nos cuentan hoy Miguel y Rosa, fundadores del grupo musical Sal150.

Programación de Buenas Noticias TV

Inicio

Nuestra programación, en La2 de TVE, pretende compartir el mensaje de las Buenas Noticias que Jesucristo anunció de forma actual y relevante, es decir, a través de las vidas de cristianos que experimentan la presencia de Dios en sus vidas y el poder del Evangelio.

Desde 1985 las Iglesias Evangélicas han realizado este programa en Televisión Española. Por él han pasado creyentes evangélicos, pastores, teólogos y líderes de toda España. Se han tratado asuntos de actualidad y se ha expuesto una visión protestante de la actualidad y de los eventos históricos más importantes. En esta línea se sigue trabajando hoy, siempre en conexión con las Iglesias Evangélicas de España, para mostrar al mundo la realidad de un Dios vivo.

Si tienes sugerencias de temas o testimonios que crees que deberíamos tratar, escríbenos. Siempre estamos buscando familias cuyas vidas muestren la relevancia del Evangelio hoy, y testimonios poderosos del poder de Dios. De antemano damos las gracias por tu ayuda.

Puedes consultar la página con nuestro horario de emisión y nuestra página con el listado de programas.

Generación Z: Emancipación

¿Emanciparse o no emanciparse? He ahí el dilema. Pero claro, ¿quién puede emanciparse en España? ¿Sabías que estamos a la cola de la emancipación europea? Solo el 16% de los jóvenes españoles pueden emanciparse, mientras que la media europea es justo el doble. ¿Por qué será?

Emisión: 28 mayo 2023

La Maternidad de Elna

La guerra civil española provocó que cientos de miles de españoles se refugiaron en el sur de Francia. Entre ellos, muchas mujeres embarazadas y bebés que encontraron en la Maternidad de Elna el amparo, la protección y la vida que otros les habían robado. Después, tras el estallido de la II Guerra Mundial, también llegaron madres judías que huían del nazismo en busca de refugio.

Succession is quickly approaching its finale, and with the ending in sight, the stars are reflecting on the moments they're looking back on fondly. When it comes to a series like Succession, there are so many facets to love, from quotable dialogue to heartbreaking and sometimes hilarious scenes. For stars including Brian Cox, Jeremy Strong, Sarah Snook, Kieran Culkin, Alan Ruck, J. Smith-Cameron, and Nicholas Braun, the results are varied. (Credit: HBO) In the video above, they all get candid about the moments that they'll remember long after the final credits roll. Kicking things off, Cox reveals that his favorite moment actually happened in Season 4, and it involves the scene between Logan and his children where he tells them they're "not serious people." Undoubtedly a standout for the actor, Strong also selects a serious scene, from Season 3 between himself and Cox, the dinner from the penultimate

Ratings: Sheldon Dominates Finale-Filled Thursday, CSI: Vegas Eyes Lows

In the latest TV show ratings, CBS' Young Sheldon dominated a Thursday night that was chock full of season finales.

CBS | Sheldon (with 6.6 million total viewers and a 0.6 demo rating, TVLine reader grade "A-") was steady, while So Help Me Todd (4.4 mil/0.3, reader grade "A") and CSI: Vegas (2.7 mil/0.2) both dipped opposite Grey's Anatomy's two-hour season ender, with the latter hitting/tying series lows.

When Christine Quinn announced that she was leaving Selling Sunset after Season 5, it was unclear how the show would go on without her. For the first five seasons, she was the icy core of the series, someone who was unafraid to fight with any and everyone, scored multimillion dollar deals, and fired off some of the show's best quips, all while confidently wearing six-inch heels. In short, Quinn was reality TV gold – she seemed impossible to replace. But Season 6 proves there is a way to fill that Christine Quinn-shaped hole in the heart of O Group.

'Primo' Creator Previews 'Sweet, Charming & Funny' Freevee Family Comedy

This coming-of-age sitcom gives new meaning to the expression "Say uncle!" Primo, as the Latino family calls 16-year-old Rafa (newcomer Ignacio Diaz-Silverio), grows up in San Antonio with single mom Drea and the influence of his five devoted uncles. Trouble is, Mom's brothers rarely agree — on anything. While bad boy Rollie (Johnny Rey Diaz) prescribes an act of violence to get a crush's attention, crunchy Mondo (Efrain Villa) suggests communal crying — like a group hug, but wetter. (Credit: Amazon Freevee) Sharp and semi-autobiographical, the series is created by best-selling Movies (And Other Things) author Shea Serrano, with the writers' room presence of Emmy-winning exec producer Mike Schur (Parks and Recreation). "Primo is considerably more sweet, charming and funny than I was, but his nervousness — that's me," Serrano says, noting that seconds into his alter ego's

'Jeopardy!' Star James Holzhauer Drops Huge News About Show

Wheel of Fortune fans were not happy on Thursday (May 18) evening as a contestant lost out on a $100,000 prize due to a final puzzle that many deemed "impossible" to figure out. Cesar Redaja, a clinical pharmacist from Tampa, Florida, was the unlucky contestant in question. He made it all the way to the bonus round, where he was tasked with solving a puzzle under the "Phrase" category, but he struggled to work it out in time. After picking the additional letters "H, G, M, and A," Redaja was left with a board that read "That _AS A _ _ _ _ Tal _A_T_R." As the timer ran down, the Tampa native tried guessing, but nothing was coming to mind. "That was a... That was a capital," he said. With his time up, Pat Sajak and Vanna White revealed the answer, which was, "That Was A Pivotal Factor." The audience groaned as the answer was unveiled,...

'Happy Valley' Has Set the Standard for the Modern Mystery Drama ↗

Since the one-two punch of Sherlock Holmes and Agatha Christie, British mysteries have been one of the island nation's greatest exports alongside Shakespeare. The genre has long informed American procedural shows, both consciously and subconsciously (see: every emotionless Sherlock-esque detective in history). However, nothing has changed the landscape more than Happy Valley, rightly viewed as a landmark turning point in the storied British mystery, helping usher in an era of working-class realism to the genre and spawning imitators on both sides of the pond.

'Jeopardy!' Boss Speaks Out on Ken vs. Mayim Debate, Plus Who Gets Better Ratings ↗

Jeopardy! showrunner Michael Davies has made plenty of changes since taking over the role from Mike Richards in 2021, including new visuals, new tournaments, new rules, and, of course, two new hosts. While Davies himself didn't select Ken Jennings and Mayim Bialik as Jeopardy! hosts (that was decided before he came aboard), he has helped them settle into their roles, including choosing which specials and tournaments each should helm. It was initially reported that Bialik would be hosting all prime-time events, but the currently airing Masters tournament sees Jennings in the host role. "When I joined Jeopardy!, there was already a deal that existed with Mayim to do all prime-time events," Davies told Vulture in a new interview. "At that point, it was just the Jeopardy! Tensions were high after a U.S. senator was shot and killed at his daughter's wedding. After reviewing footage from the incident, Shaw and Cosgrove realized their suspect was a waiter whose face was obscured by a KN95 mask. (He might have been a murderer, but at least he was being Covid-conscious.)

'Grease: Rise of the Pink Ladies': How Jamal Sims Pays Homage to 'Greased Lightning' Through Dance

Choreographer Jamal Sims is no stranger when it comes to creating top-of-the-line dance numbers for television and film projects, and his work on "Grease: Rise of the Pink Ladies" "New Cool" sequence just extends his repertoire.

"Because I grew up on this film, I felt like [the choreography] was in me," Sims tells Variety.

The scene set for "New Cool" resembles that of another favored number from the original "Grease" film — defined by boilersuits, beat-up cars and a whole lot of grease.

... ou Cool is set in a mechanic's classroom," said Sims. "I [know] color is that this was going to be

United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

USPTO OFFICIAL NOTICE

Office Action (Official Letter) has issued on May 19, 2023 for
U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 90833571

A USPTO examining attorney has reviewed your trademark application and issued an Office action. You must respond to this Office action to avoid your application abandoning. Follow the steps below.

- (1) Read the Office action. This email is NOT the Office action.
- (2) Respond to the Office action by the deadline using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) or the Electronic System for Trademark Trials and Appeals (ESTTA), as appropriate. Your response and/or appeal must be received by the USPTO on or before 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time of the last day of the response deadline. Otherwise, your application will be abandoned. See the Office action itself regarding how to respond.
- (3) Direct general questions about using USPTO electronic forms, the USPTO website, the application process, the status of your application, and whether there are outstanding deadlines to the Trademark Assistance Center \(TAC\).

After reading the Office action, address any question(s) regarding the specific content to the USPTO examining attorney identified in the Office action.

GENERAL GUIDANCE

- Check the status of your application periodically in the Trademark Status & Document Retrieval \(TSDR\) database to avoid missing critical deadlines.
- Update your correspondence email address to ensure you receive important USPTO notices about your application.
- Beware of trademark-related scams. Protect yourself from people and companies that may try to take financial advantage of you. Private companies may call you and pretend to be the USPTO or may send you communications that resemble official USPTO documents to trick you. We will never request your credit card number or social security number over the phone. Verify the correspondence originated from us by using your serial number in our database, TSDR, to confirm that it appears under the “Documents” tab, or contact the Trademark Assistance Center.

- Hiring a U.S.-licensed attorney. If you do not have an attorney and are not required to have one under the trademark rules, we encourage you to hire a U.S.-licensed attorney specializing in trademark law to help guide you through the registration process. The USPTO examining attorney is not your attorney and cannot give you legal advice, but rather works for and represents the USPTO in trademark matters.
