--and--

U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 78/073,754 for

"TURBO-KLEEN" - Our Docket No. 33801

Dear Scott:

As you can appreciate, it would be too awkward for me to continue to represent you in your trademark applications for GROUT ARMOR and TURBO-KLEEN. I am going to file a withdrawal of counsel with the Trademark Office. Attached to this letter is a listing of all of the Patent Attorneys in Ft. Lauderdale. I am not personally familiar with any of them; however, the ones that are rated (AV) are regarded higher by their peers than the ones who are rated (BV) or have no rating at all.

Enclosed is the file for your trademark application for TURBO-KLEEN. I recently received a notice from the Trademark Office that the registration of this mark has been opposed. A copy of the Notice of Opposition is included. Unfortunately, a relatively large company, Ecolab, Inc., has a number of trademarks that use the term TURBO. They do not have any mark, however, that is close to TURBO-KLEEN. You can discuss this matter, of course, with your new attorney, but it would appear that your chances of prevailing are pretty good. Unfortunately, the opposition process is a relatively long proposition and you would have to pay an attorney to represent you. Please note that your response to the opposition must be filed by July 28, 2002.

I am also enclosing the file for your trademark application for GROUT ARMOR. No opposition has been filed in this application to date. The status is that we filed a revised definition of the goods, and we are waiting for the Trademark Office to respond.

I hope that all goes well with you in the future and that your business prospers.

Best regards,

David B. Deioma
