In re Application Serial No.: 97/422,384

Mark:  VOIBON

Filing Date: May 20, 2022

Publication Date: March 21, 2023

MARRIOTT INTERNATIONAL, INC.,

Opposer,

v.

ANGROW COMPANY LIMITED,

Applicant.

Opposition No. _____

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Opposer Marriott International, Inc. (“Marriott”), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Delaware with a principal place of business at 10400 Fernwood Road, Bethesda, Maryland 20817, will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 97/422,384 (the “Application”) and published in the Official Gazette on March 21, 2023, and accordingly, Opposer opposes the Application.

As grounds for this Notice, Marriott alleges as follows:

1. Marriott operates, franchises, and licenses more than 8,500 hotel, residential, timeshare, and other lodging properties under more than 31 brands and across 138 countries and territories, giving people more ways to connect, experience and expand their world. Founded by J. Willard and Alice Marriott, and guided by family leadership and ethical values since 1927, their principles remain embedded in the company’s culture and in everything Marriott does today.

2. Marriott launched its Marriott Bonvoy® loyalty program on February 13, 2019. Marriott Bonvoy® is a loyalty rewards program that enables its members to earn points for hotel stays, tours and activities, shopping with the Marriott Bonvoy® credit cards, and offerings from Marriott’s travel partners. Members can use their points to redeem hotel stays, flights, car rentals, gift cards, shopping, and unforgettable Marriott Bonvoy Moments™ experiences.

3. Following the successful launch of the Marriott Bonvoy® loyalty program, Marriott expanded its offerings under the Marriott Bonvoy name and marks to a range of additional services, including as the overall branding for Marriott’s entire portfolio of brands on marriott.com, as well as branding for retail offerings under the MARRIOTT BONVOY BOUTIQUES mark; hotel and hospitality in partnerships such as offerings with Uber and with MGM, and as part of some of Marriott’s own brands such as HOMES & VILLAS BY MARRIOTT BONVOY; travel entertainment and information under marks such as MARRIOTT BONVOY TRAVELER; and a family of MARRIOTT BONVOY credit cards, among other uses.

4. Marriott owns the following United States trademark registrations of marks containing BONVOY (the “BONVOY Marks”), among many others:

| Mark            | Reg. No. / Ser. No. | Dates  | Goods and Services  |
|-----------------|---------------------|--|---|

| Mark                      | Reg. No. / Ser. No. | Dates  | Goods and Services   |
| MARRIOTT BONVOY BOUTIQUES | 6,479,592           | Filing date:Aug. 14, 2019Registration date:Sept. 7, 2021 | Class 3: Personal care products, namely, bath soaps, shampoo, hair conditioner, body lotion and shower gelClass 20: Mattresses; box springs; pillows; mattress toppersClass 24: Bed sheets; pillowcases; duvets; duvet covers; bed blankets; blanket throws; mattress pads; towelsClass 25: RobesClass 35: Online retail store services featuring linens, bedding products, towels, personal care products, apparel and accessories, interior furnishings, and household goods |

The foregoing registrations (collectively, the “BONVOY Registrations”) are valid and in full force and effect. Marriott’s BONVOY Registrations constitute prima facie evidence of Marriott’s exclusive right to use the registered marks in connection with the goods and services specified in the registrations. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 2.122(d), printouts from the United States Patent and Trademark Office’s electronic TSDR database showing the current status and title for each of the BONVOY Registrations are attached as Exhibit A.

5. In addition to Marriott’s BONVOY Registrations, Marriott owns common law rights in its BONVOY Marks and its BONVOY word mark for advertising, business management, and business administration services; business administration of incentive award programs; online retail store services featuring linens, bedding products, towels, personal care products, apparel and accessories, interior furnishings, and household goods; and personal care products, namely, bath soaps, shampoo, hair conditioner, body lotion and shower gel; and numerous other goods and services, all by virtue of Marriott’s extensive use and promotion of its BONVOY Marks and its BONVOY word mark in connection with these goods and services.

Marriott has enjoyed these common law rights since before the filing date of the Application and any date of first use that Applicant Angrow Company Limited (“Applicant”) may be able to establish.

6. As a result of Marriott’s extensive sales, offering for sale, and promotion of these goods and services under its BONVOY Marks and its BONVOY word mark, as well as unsolicited media attention, the general consuming public of the United States associates Marriott’s BONVOY word mark with Marriott and has done so since prior to the filing date of the Application. Marriott’s BONVOY mark is famous.

7. Notwithstanding Marriott’s prior rights, Applicant filed the Application on May 20, 2022, under Section 1(a), 15 U.S.C. § 1051(a), to register the following mark (“Applicant’s Mark”) for the following services in Class 35 (“Applicant’s Services”), citing February 10, 2022, as the date of first use anywhere and in commerce:

Advertising and advertisement services; Advertising and marketing; Business advice, inquiries or information; Business merchandising display services; Import and export agencies; Market analysis; Marketing analysis services; Marketing research; Organisation of exhibitions for commercial or advertising purposes; Product merchandising for others; Providing business information via a web site; Sales promotion for others; Sample distribution; Sponsorship search; Wholesale store services for pharmaceutical, veterinary and sanitary preparations and medical supplies; Provision of an on-line marketplace for buyers and sellers of goods and services

8. Applicant submitted a specimen of use purporting to be a screen capture of a WordPress site at a subdomain of angrow.com (“Applicant’s Website”). See Exhibit B. That specimen describes Applicant’s “Voibon & Ryphra” service as “a skincare-focused website” that, inter alia, “can display your products on our website for you and create greater value for you.” Id.

9. Before filing the present Application, Applicant had already filed several other VOIBON applications containing specimens that depicted other parties’ products but apparently were digitally altered to add Applicant’s Mark. Applicant’s December 22, 2021, specimen for Application Serial No. 97/183,884 to register VOIBON in Class 3, for example, purported to depict a product listing for “Voibon ethereal” clove leaf oil at the website <https://www.worldonlinevip.com/>, see Exhibit C, when in fact, those photos apparently were copied from a different seller’s listing on Amazon.com:

Applicant’s Specimen for App. Ser. No. 97/183,884

<https://www.amazon.com/UpNature-Essential-Undiluted-Unfiltered-Toothaches/dp/B01NALXB4X>

See Exhibit D. Indeed, Applicant conceded in an opposition proceeding in the United Kingdom that in the United States, it “only provided some images of a digital model for the purpose of registering the U.S. trademark.” See Exhibit E (emphasis added).

10. To test Applicant's claims of use, Marriott retained an investigator in August 2022 to purchase products from two websites associated with Applicant (<https://angrowcompanylimited.shop/> and <http://www.voibon.com/shop/>), each of which purported to offer personal care products for sale under Applicant's Mark. While both websites allowed the investigator to add items to a cart, neither website was configured to receive payments. The investigator sent several emails to Applicant inquiring how to complete a purchase, but Applicant did not respond to those inquiries.

11. On information and belief, the products shown in Applicant's "on-line marketplace" under Applicant's Mark are not actually available for purchase.

12. Applicant's Mark is highly similar to Marriott's BONVOY Marks and its BONVOY word mark visually, aurally, and conceptually. Further, Marriott has used its BONVOY Marks and its BONVOY word mark in connection with goods and services that are identical, closely related, or complementary to Applicant's Services.

13. On information and belief, Applicant selected VOIBON to traffic on Marriott's goodwill in its BONVOY Marks and cause consumers to associate Applicant's Mark with Marriott.

FIRST GROUND FOR OPPOSITION
LACK OF BONA FIDE USE IN COMMERCE
15 U.S.C. § 1051(a)

14. Marriott hereby incorporates each of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

15. The Application cites February 10, 2022, as Applicant's date of first use of Applicant's Mark in United States commerce.

16. On information and belief, Applicant is not using, was not using at the time it filed the Application, and has never used Applicant's Mark in United States commerce in connection with Applicant's Services. First, on information and belief, the products displayed on Applicant's "on-line marketplace" are not actually available for purchase. Second, even if Applicant were offering Applicant's Services, its mark would be "Voibon & Ryphra" (also spelled "Voibon and Ryphra"), as Applicant's specimen uses that term to identify the source of Applicant's Services.

17. Accordingly, on information and belief, Applicant's recitation of services in the Application extends beyond any actual, bona fide use of Applicant's Mark in United States commerce in violation of Section 1(a), and the Application is therefore void ab initio.

18. Alternatively, on information and belief, Applicant has not used Applicant's Mark in United States commerce in connection with all of Applicant's Services at the time Applicant filed the Application. Because registration under Section 1(a) is allowed only as to services in connection with which the mark is actually being used, registration should be refused as to those services for which Applicant had not used Applicant's Mark in United States commerce as of the filing date of the Application, namely, May 20, 2022.

SECOND GROUND FOR OPPOSITION

LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

15 U.S.C. § 1052(d)

19. Marriott hereby incorporates each of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

20. Applicant's Mark is confusingly similar in appearance, sound, and commercial impression to Marriott's BONVOY Marks.

21. Marriott's BONVOY word mark is a coined term lacking any dictionary definition, see Exhibit F, and the literal element of Applicant's Mark merely flips the two components of Marriott's BONVOY word mark, substituting the aurally equivalent and visually similar "VOI" for "VOY." See Exhibit G.

22. In addition, Applicant's Services are identical, closely related, or complementary to the goods and services in Marriott's BONVOY Registrations. As one example, the services in Marriott's BONVOY Registrations include "Advertising, business management, [and] business administration," and the Application lists "Advertising and advertisement services; Advertising and marketing; Business advice, inquiries or information; [and] Business merchandising display services." As another example, Marriott's registration of MARRIOTT BONVOY BOUTIQUES (Reg. No. 6,479,592) includes both "Personal care products" in Class 3 and "Online retail store services featuring . . . personal care products" in Class 35. The Application lists "Provision of an on-line marketplace for buyers and sellers of goods and services," and Applicant's specimen makes clear these products are "skincare-focused," as confirmed by Applicant's pending applications to register marks containing VOIBON in Class 3. See Exhibit H.

23. Applicant's use of a mark highly similar to Marriott's BONVOY Marks and BONVOY word mark for services that are identical, closely related, or complementary to goods and services offered by Marriott under those marks is likely to lead consumers mistakenly to believe that Applicant's Services are associated with, licensed or endorsed by, connected with, or affiliated with Marriott.

24. Marriott will be damaged by the registration of Applicant's Mark because Applicant's Mark so closely resembles Marriott's previously used and registered BONVOY Marks and BONVOY word mark as to be likely to (a) cause confusion, mistake, or deception in the minds of consumers as to the origin or source of Applicant's Services or the affiliation between Applicant and Marriott, and (b) cause consumers to withhold trade from Marriott, all in violation of Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d). Marriott's interests therefore fall within the zone of interests protected by Section 13, 15 U.S.C. § 1063, and Marriott is entitled to bring this statutory cause of action.

THIRD GROUND FOR OPPOSITION
LIKELIHOOD OF DILUTION
15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)

25. Marriott incorporates each of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

26. Marriott's BONVOY word mark is distinctive in relation to Marriott's goods and services under the mark.

27. Marriott's BONVOY word mark also is widely recognized by the general consuming public of the United States as designating Marriott as the source of its goods and services under the mark. Marriott's BONVOY word mark therefore is famous and distinctive within the meaning of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

28. Marriott's BONVOY word mark has been famous within the meaning of Section 43(c) since prior to the filing date of the Application and any first date of bona fide use in United States commerce that Applicant may be able to establish.

29. Marriott also has engaged in substantially exclusive use of its BONVOY word mark.

30. Applicant's Mark is highly similar to Marriott's BONVOY word mark. The literal element of Applicant's Mark merely flips the two components of Marriott's BONVOY word mark, substituting the aurally equivalent and visually similar "VOI" for "VOY."

31. Applicant's use of Applicant's Mark in connection with Applicant's Services likely would cause consumers to associate Applicant's Mark with Marriott's BONVOY word mark.

32. Applicant's Mark therefore is likely to dilute the distinctiveness of Marriott's BONVOY word mark by eroding consumers' identification of that mark with Marriott, and by otherwise lessening the capacity of that mark to identify and distinguish Marriott's goods and services, in violation of Section 43(c)(1).

33. If the Application matured into a registration, Applicant would obtain a prima facie exclusive right to use Applicant's Mark in connection with Applicant's Services, thus causing damage and injury to Marriott.

34. Marriott therefore asks the Board to sustain this proceeding in Marriott's favor by refusing registration to the mark underlying Application Serial No. 97/422,384.

The required opposition fee is being electronically processed in connection with this Notice of Opposition.

This 18th day of July, 2023.

- Question: Is this alcohol free, gluten free? How does it taste?
- Answer: The label says 100% pure Oregano Oil. Nothing about alcohol or gluten on the label. This is EXTREMELY potent. So if you try taking a drop straight in your mouth or on your tongue, at first it has a strong oregano taste, but then it burns so strongly the taste doesn't matter and you can only think about rinsing it out A... ★★★★★ Turmeric Root Oil - Dense. Pure. Concentrated. Great Curcumin Source for Reducing Inflammation.

Reviewed in the United States on February 18, 2019

Scent: Turmeric | Size: 4 Fl Oz (Pack of 1) | Verified Purchase

Most of us who take supplements and herbs know how valuable Turmeric is for both inflammation management, and some cardiovascular benefits.

The real benefits come through when you combine it with, or use an extract high in Curcumin, the essential polyphenol in Turmeric.

When combined correctly, Turmeric and its extract, Curcumin, is a fgreat anti-inflammatory. Can reduce pain. Has been shown to alleviate some signs of depression.

Turmeric+ Curcumin can also help the body produce glutathione and superoxide dismutase. Antioxidants shown to be valuable anti-aging compounds.

Turmeric and Curcumin may even reduce the progression of some forms of cancer.

The power to alleviate age-related cognitive decline is measurable.

Scent: Turmeric | Size: 4 Fl Oz (Pack of 1) | Verified Purchase

This is definitely turmeric. I ordered this because I went to get a pedicure and got a fungus after being cut several time with cuticle clippers! The lady cut my big toe several times, a few days later my toe became very hot and swollen it was clearly infected. I started with soaking it in hot water with Apple cider vinegar and a foot soak. That did draw the infection out and I thought it was over, over the next few weeks I started noticing an odor every time I took my sneakers off. I thought it was my sneakers so I threw them away and began to wear another pair. I like most people am always rushing jumping in and out of the shower, on this particular evening I decided to take a bath, after relaxing in the tub I was washing and paying attention to my feet when suddenly I noticed this grayish white skin, and what looked like chunks of dead skin on my foot! I jumped out of the tub and showered because I did not want whatever it was to go anywhere else. I dried off Googled foot problems and found something that looked like mine. I looked for how to heal it, and read that the medicine prescribed can lead to liver problems, so I had to try organic methods. I tried Tea Tree Oil, didn't work for me, some other stuff an Amazon reviewer swore by, didn't work for me, I got this, mixed it with aloe vera gel and oregano oil from the very first time, I began to see improvements! It's been approximately 2 weeks of using this potion and my foot is back. I even told it how

★★★★★ This is the best product for any type of cold

Reviewed in the United States on January 9, 2018

Scent: Oregano | Size: 4 Fl Oz (Pack of 1) | Verified Purchase

This is the best product for any type of cold!!!

I was suffering for over 2 years with chronic nose infection, cold, sore throat what not... and lately it was harder and harder to recover after it, but after taking the Oregano Oil, my recover process was so effective, like never before, the nose infection was GONE, like it never was there, almost after the first day after I woke up the next morning my nose started to breath in it is own and symptoms of weakness started to go away and all I was doing just taking it 3-4 times a day 3-5 drops, mixed it with a little bit of OJ and then had glass of water or OJ to wash it out of my mouth. And I feel like my immune system are getting stronger, because I'm still taking it 2-3 times a day. Now I recommend it to everyone. What a miracle :)

Fantastic product! It's super strong so you only need a drop or two or you need to cut it with another oil (I find grapeseed is nice and light). The bottle size is perfect! Much bigger than most companies offer. It's made a huge difference to my bronchitis in just a matter of days. I've been using oil of oregano for over a decade and have tried nearly every brand on the market. I will definitely purchase this brand repeatedly. Highly, highly recommend.

Scent: Eucalyptus | Size: 4 Fl Oz (Pack of 1) | Verified Purchase

ユーカリオイルはオーストラリアの友人から以前もらったことがあり、咳が止まらない時に効果を実感していました。

これはその時のもらいものに比べたら雑味とかエグミみたいなのが少なく感じました。使いやすい香りです。

お湯に垂らして蒸気を吸う方法も試しましたが、すぐに蒸気に乗って匂いが消えてしまいました。

なのでバームを作ることになりました。ベースはワセリン、硬さ調整にホホバオイル、最後にユーカリオイルを数滴、簡単にお好みのバームの出来上がり。胸や首や顔に塗ったりしています。

鼻をかみすぎて鼻漏りが荒れて困る時にも使えます。スースーしますのでユーカリオイルは少なめから試すのが吉です。ユーカリオイルが多いと、荒れた肌には沁みと思います。ハンドクリームにも使っていますし、鼻の中の乾燥には綿棒で塗ります。

購入前に効能等を調べていたので、期待しすぎた感があります。口をゆすぐ際などにかなり薄めての使用しても、刺激があり過ぎて辛いです。。苦いというより、痛い！現在は入浴時の足浴の際に、数滴垂らして使用しています。殺菌作用もあるそうなので、続けてみたいと思います。

なお、うっかりソファで原液をこぼしてしまったのですが、すぐに洗濯しても、シミが全く取れませんでした。

7. Request for “proof of use”

Please see Tribunal Work Manual Section 3.1.10 Proof of use in opposition proceedings or Section 3.4.6 Proof of use in invalidation proceedings.

If the person opposing or applying to cancel your trade mark has provided a statement of use on grounds raised under sections 5(1) and 5(2) and 5(3) of the Trade Marks Act, you can request that they provide evidence to show that they are using their trade mark; this is called “proof of use”.

If you do not request “proof of use” the opponent’s statement of use will be accepted with the consequence that the earlier mark(s) may be relied upon for all the goods/services identified in the statement of use.

This is not applicable if this is a fast track opposition, in these circumstances please go straight to Section 8.

Do you want the opponent to provide “proof of use”?

Yes

No > GO TO Section 8

List of goods and/or services

List goods/ services for which you require ‘proof of use’. Please use a continuation sheet if not enough space.

Note: If more than one trade mark is being relied upon by the opponent or cancellation applicant, please provide the number(s) of the trade mark(s) for which you would like the other party to provide “proof of use”.

The Applicant requests the Opponent provide proof of genuine use of all the trademarks cited by the opponent. Please see the attachment, counter statement at the end of the form.

8. Counterstatement by defendant:

Your counterstatement is the reason(s) for your defence of your trade mark against the grounds presented by the opponent / applicant for cancellation.

The purpose of the counterstatement is to admit (agree), deny (disagree) or request proof of any of the grounds set out by the other party in their statement of grounds.

Please use a continuation sheet if not enough space.

Please see the attachment, counter statement at the end of the form.

9. Declaration

I believe that the facts stated in this notice of defence and counterstatement are true.

Diphthongs: a Pronunciation Guide

A diphthong is a long vowel sound made by gliding from one position of the mouth to another within the same syllable. Depending on your accent, you may use up to 8 diphthongs in English pronunciation, and here they are, in rough order of popularity:

EYE /aɪ/

An /aɪ/ is what you use to see with.... It's generally spelt with an 'i' like in LIKE, RIGHT and TIME, but it's also spelt with 'y' as in CRY & MY.

/aɪ/ starts with the jaw open and the tongue more or less in the centre [ɑ] then it glides to [i]; /aɪ/ I SPY. It starts more open and back in posh I SPY. It might start to the front in Northern English I SPY. Now let's play a game, I spy with my little eye, something beginning with 'd'...

/'daɪnəsɔː/

A /eɪ/

/eɪ/ is the first letter of the Roman alphabet. The sound is found in words spelt with 'a' like MAKE, RAIN & STAY, and others spelt with an 'e' like EIGHT and STEAK.

In most British accents it sounds pretty similar starting with the tongue at the front of the mouth with the jaw half open [e] and then closing to [ɪ] – so in GB English it's /eɪ/ – RAINY DAY. Some Northern accents make it into a long single vowel [e:] RAINY DAY, in Geordie that's [eə] so RAINY DAY. Brummies also pronounce /eɪ/ when there's a 'y' at the end of a word.... lovely!

OH /əʊ/

/əʊ/ is what you say when you're surprised by something OH! or with slightly different intonation, when you are intrigued by something OH! Its spelling nearly always includes an 'o' like in GO, SHOW, LOAN & THOUGH, though some other spellings can occur like SEW.

In GB English /əʊ/ starts in the centre of the mouth [ə] and moves to the back rounded [u]; /əʊ/ DON'T GO, but it changes dramatically in different accents. The Queen and incredibly posh speakers would start at the front of the mouth and might make it very long [ɜːʊ] DON'T GO, whereas in some Northern areas of England you'll hear a single

OW /aʊ/

/aʊ/ is what you say when something hurts: OW! It's normally spelt OU like in ROUND & MOUSE, or OW like in BROWN & HOW.

In GB English you start with an open jaw [a] and move to back rounded [u] so /aʊ/ HOW PROUD! Some Scots say [u:] HOW PROUD. Posh speakers might start it closer to the back and make it a bit long HOW PROUD, Londoners have been known to make one long vowel at the front [a:] HOW PROUD. In the West Country, you'll hear [ɛʊ] HOW PROUD.

AIR /eə/

/eə/ is what you breathe, except in London of course, where it's known as smog. The sound is found in words with combinations of AR like PAIR, STARE, AEROPLANE, & BEAR.

/eə/ has turned into a long monophthong (single) vowel [ɛ:] for many

CARE BEAR. Posh and old fashioned speakers would definitely make it a diphthong CARE BEAR.

EAR /iə/

An /iə/ is what you use to hear with. It is commonly found in words containing 'e' and 'r' like CAREER, HERE, NEAR & YEAR, but it's found in words without 'r' too like IDEA.

In GB English, /iə/ starts at the front [i] and moves to the centre [ə]; /iə/ NEAR HERE, but more and more speakers are just making one long [i] sound so NEAR HERE. Scots would say the 'r', so NEAR HERE and really posh people would open more and make the second sound longer NEAR HERE.

OY /ɔɪ/

/ɔɪ/ is what you say to grab someone's attention: OY! It's found in words spelt OY like TOY, BOY & ANNOY and in words spelt with OI like FOIL & COIN.

The pronunciation of /ɔɪ/ doesn't vary much from region to region starting with the tongue at the back and rounded lips [ɔ] and gliding to [i] so /ɔɪ/ – ROYAL SOIL. It's not very common – only about 1 in every thousand sounds an English speaker makes, though you might hear it more often than that in London: OY! COME BACK HERE!

Where is /ʊə/?

We don't teach the sound /ʊə/ any more at Pronunciation Studio, why? Because we don't say it, we say /'bɔ:/ instead of /'bʊə/, /'tɔ:/ instead of /'tʊə/ and /mə'njɔ:/ instead of /mə'njʊə/. But if you really really want to use it, it starts rounded at the back and moves to the centre /ə/.
